China Tuesday confirmed the appointment of Hua Kuo-feng as the successor to Mao Tse-tung and leader of one-fourth of all mankind. A government spokesman also refused to discuss a reported purge against Mao's widow, Chiang Ching.

A U.S. Court of Appeals in Washington Tuesday cited "overwhelming evidence of guilt," in affirming the Watergate coverup convictions and prison terms of former Nixon aides John Mitchell, John Erhlichman and H. R. Haldeman. All three men remain free, but Judge John Sirica can now set a date for them to report to federal marshals and begin serving their coverup sentences.

The United Auto Workers Union announced Tuesday night that 170,000 Ford Motor Co. workers have approved a new three-year contract by a narrow 489-vote margin. The workers have been on strike for 28 days. Ford said workers will begin returning to work at some plants Wednesday.

Economy

The economic rebound lost more steam Tuesday as the stock market plummeted another 8.47 points. The Dow Jones average, which lost 11.56 points Monday, is at 932.35, its lowest closing since Jan. 16 when the blue chip indicator finished the day at 929.63. In the last 12 sessions the closely followed Dow has plunged nearly 77 points.

Court nixes plea on nun's alimony

by NANCY GOTLER

The U.S. Supreme Court Tuesday refused to hear a former Arlington Heights man's contention that he should be excused from paying his ex-wife alimony because she has entered a Roman Catholic convent.

The decision ends a four-year battle through the Illinois and federal court systems by James Lane, now of Los Angeles, against his ex-wife of 21 years, Sister Mary A. Lane.

Lane sought a change in his divorce decree in 1972, contending his former wife had "remarried" the church when she entered the Dominican Sisters of Perpetual Rosary Convent in Milwaukee and, therefore, was not entitled to alimony.

HE WAS ORDERED after the August 1970 divorce to pay his ex-wife $250 a month. He received custody of two of their three children still living at home.

In April 1974, Cook County Circuit Court Judge Robert L. Hunter required Lane to continue paying alimony. "In my opinion," the judge said, "there is not sufficient change of circumstances to reduce or eliminate alimony."

At the time Lane testified he did not object to his ex-wife's entering a convent, but that he could not afford to pay her.

He appealed Hunter's decision to the Illinois Appellate Court, which Dec. 31, 1975, said, "We conclude that compelling James Lane to pay alimony to his former wife after she entered a convent to become a nun does not deny him equal protection of the law . . ."

And May 27 this year, the Illinois Supreme Court refused to hear the case, leading to Tuesday's high court decision.

LANE AND HIS ex-wife refused to comment on the high court's decision, of which neither had been aware until contacted by The Herald.

Joel F. Ostron, the attorney who wrote the writ of certiorari requesting a ruling by the U.S. Supreme Court, said he thought the court refused to hear the case because it was not far reaching enough.

"We feel there are two constitutional questions involved," said Ostron.

"One is equal protection for Mr. Lane," he said. "A husband whose ex-wife is supported either by entering the job force or remarrying doesn't have to pay alimony. And the court order of alimony amounts to a government requirement that Mr. Lane contribute to the church, because his alimony payments amount to a savings for the Catholic church."

MOTHER MIRIAM Leonard of the Sisters of Perpetual Rosary said the court decision is "just and equitable."

Mother Miriam Leonard called Lane's appeal "ludicrous" because "he's been remiss on his payments to her since 1974."

Sister Mary A. Lane's attorney, Richard Rinella of Chicago, also said Lane has not paid alimony since Dec. 31, 1974 and that his client will sue for the money owed her.

Lane refused to comment about whether he has made recent alimony

Changes urged to pump life into village Caucus

Arlington Heights Caucus officials Tuesday suggested amending bylaws to make candidate selection proceedings public and minimize electioneering in an effort to pump life into what some fear is a dying institution.

The Caucus, whose participants insist is a nonpolitical civic organization, recruits and nominates candidates for village office.

However, only one of the Caucus' five candidates won in the 1975 election and some read that as a vote of no confidence for the organization.

TUESDAY ABOUT 50 persons heard Caucus officials plot strategy for next year's elections and implore those present to participate in keeping the Caucus alive.

"The Caucus is dead right now unless you and others participate wholeheartedly in the community, cooperate with the mechanics of running two public meetings and provide suggestions for Caucus officials and candidates," said Lester H. Ploetz, a Caucus participant.

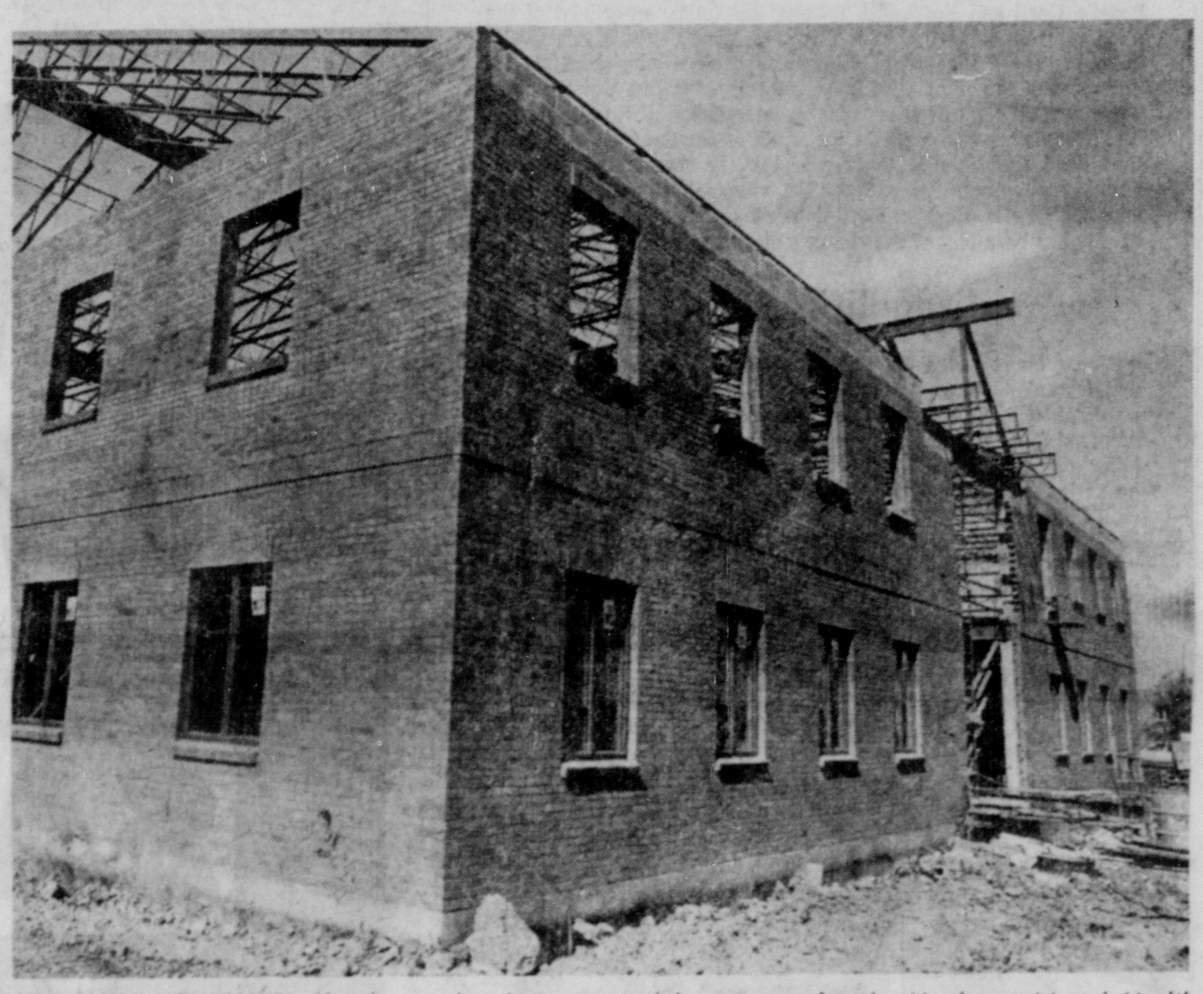

"Our problems in the past have been apathy, ignorance and misunderstanding," he said. "I suspect that half the people in town think it makes no difference who runs for office and that few know what the Caucus is about. Others think we're just a bunch of old fogeys trying to run the town.

Gerald Chapman, a member of the Caucus advisory board, suggested four bylaw changes to make the selection process more public and lessen electioneering.

CHAPMAN PROPOSED the bylaws be amended so that:

- All candidate recommendation committee meetings, wxcept those where debate and balloting take place, be open to the public;
- Ballot counting and comments made during debates be kept confidential, but reporters could be allowed to attend if they agree not to publish balloting results or debate comments;
- Time between the final recommendation committee meeting and the second public meeting b as short as possible to minimize electioneering; and
- A campaign advisory committee be appointed by the executive board to develop activities and organize financing for Caucus candidates.

Wallace B. Daughtry, temporary Caucus vice chairman, said a public meeting will be Oct. 27 at Rand Junior High School, 2550 N. Arlington Heights Rd., to discuss bylaw changes and next year's election.

WHEELING TOWNSHIP officials say they hope to move into their new building at 1620 N. Arlington Heights Rd., Arlington Heights, by December. The new town hall will contain about 7,300 square feet and have space for the Northwest Mental Health Assn., Shelter Inc., and the Salvation Army's Community Counseling Center when completed. The building is expected to cost about $700,000.

High court proceedings cloaked in tradition

by BILL HILL

WASHINGTON, D.C. — The room is strickly quiet. Brief cases click loudly as they are opened. There is an occasional whisper.

More than 100 persons sit silently, almost as if they are on trial. Some seem in awe of the room — its marble columns, ornate ceilings, large oak doors and sculptured marble panels. Others merely are respectful of the institution they occupy.

The gavel pounds once, breaking the silence. All stand. It's an instruction that goes without saying. "God save the United States and this Honorable Court," chants the court crier, as Chief Justice Warren E. Burger emerges from behind the red velvet curtain that serves as a backdrop to the front of the Supreme Court chamber.

SIMULTANEOUSLY, the eight other justices, dressed in long, black robes, walk from behind four marble columns to the high-backed chairs at the mahogany bench.

Chief Justice Burger nods toward the two desks below him where lawyers sit nervously.

The gavel sounds again, the justices and gallery sit, and Burger announces the case number.

"Mr. Chief Justice, will it please the court," begins the attorney for the petitioner in the court's first case Tuesday.

Looking on is Jack M. Siegel, attorney for the Village of Arlington

Last arguments due in housing case

by BILL HILL

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Final arguments in the five-year-old Lincoln Green low-income housing controversy will be heard today by the U.S. Supreme Court.

The one-hour hearing begins at 10 a.m. Attorneys for the Village of Arlington Heights and the Metropolitan Housing Development Corp., Chicago, each will be given 30 minutes to present their cases and to answer questions from the justices.

The village is asking the high court to overturn a decision by the 7th Circuit Court of Appeals that ruled in June 1975 that Arlington Heights cannot stop construction of the housing corporation's proposed low-and moderate-income housing project next to St. Viator High School, Euclid Avenue and Drury Lane.

THE CIRCUIT COURT ruling said the village's refusal in 1971 to rezone the 15-acre parcel for the Lincoln Green project had "racially discriminatory effects."

Village officials maintain that the 190-unit townhouse project would amount to spot zoning and is not compatible with the adjacent residential subdivisions.

Village Atty. Jack M. Siegel insists that the case should be considered by the high court as a zoning issue. He

Swine flu shots delayed outside Chicago

by TONI GINNETTI

The swine flu inoculation program in Illinois outside Chicago was suspended Tuesday in the wake of the deaths of three elderly Pennsylvania residents who died hours after being inoculated.

Dr. Joyce Lashof, director of the Illinois Dept. of Public Health, made the decision at 3:30 p.m. to "suspend temporarily" the state's swine flu immunization program after only hours earlier assuring that the program would continue.

In Chicago, however, Dr. Murray Brown, health commissioner, said the city's program will proceed. The city is dealing directly with the federal government in administering its program.

"THERE WILL BE no change," Dr. Brown said. "There is no evidence to support the idea that we should change." He said the city's supply of swine flu vaccine does not come from the firm that supplied other parts of Illinois and Pennsylvania.

However, he said the source of the vaccine supply was not a factor in the decision to continue the program. "None of the professionals in the field believed these deaths were related to the vaccine," he began.

Swine flu inoculation began in Illinois last week in Chicago and the eight surrounding counties. Austin Hayes, a spokesman for the state public health department, said Tuesday some 238,000 doses of swine flu vaccine were dispatched by the state last week to the area, although he did not know how many persons have been inoculated so far.

He said there have been no reports of adverse reactions among Illinois residents inoculated since last week.

"THE PROGRAM has been suspended temporarily," Hayes said. "We have heard from the Center for Disease Control (in Atlanta) and we did find out that these were three of the 1,200 people vaccinated in this state (in Pennsylvania). In light of the publicity that it has drawn, Dr. Lashof decided it would be best to suspend the program."

He said officials do not know how long the suspension will last. "Hopefully it will be very short," he said.

Hayes confirmed that Illinois' initial vaccine supply came from the Parke-Davis Co., the same firm that supplied vaccine to Pennsylvania, where the deaths occurred.

He stressed, however, that there is

Heart attacks caused deaths: officials

by United Press International

The deaths of three elderly persons in Pittsburgh after they received swine flu inoculations was due to ordinary heart attacks and not the vaccine, according to preliminary findings Tuesday by the federal Center for Disease Control in Atlanta.

Three other deaths of elderly persons shortly after receiving swine flu inoculations were reported Tuesday — two in Oklahoma and one in Florida — but in each case officials said they did not believe the deaths were related to the shots.

In the Oklahoma cases, the vaccine used came from a batch different from the Pittsburgh cases. In the case of Saul Gelman, 63, Sunrise, Fla., who died of a heart attack Tuesday about 90 minutes after receiving an immunization shot, the vaccine came from the same lot as used in Pennsylvania.

Health authorities in at least nine states suspended immunization programs after two women and a man died Monday within hours of receiving vaccinations at the South Side clinic of the Allegheny County Health Dept.

Dr. Robert Sencer, disease control center director, said autopsy reports, field studies taken Tuesday by the center's epedimiologists in Pittsburgh and results of vaccine inoculations elsewhere indicated that the three died of heart attacks unrelated to the flu shots.

"IT LOOKS AS though this is a circumstantial situation where three people just happened to have heart attacks close together," Sencer said.

Sencer urged state and local health officials to continue administering the High court hears Viator case today

U.S. Supreme Court justices today will hear final arguments in the five-year-old Lincoln Green low-income housing controversy. Attorneys representing the Village of Arlington Heights and the Metropolitan Housing Development Corp. of Chicago, will present in Washington D.C. their arguments in a one-hour hearing beginning at 10 a.m. The village is asking the high court to overturn a decision by the 7th Circuit U.S. Court of Appeals in June, 1975, that ruled the village cannot stop construction of the MHDC's low-and moderate-income housing project near St. Viator High School, Euclid Avenue and Drury Lane. The village argues the proposed 190-unit project would amount to spot zoning incompatible with adjacent residential subdivisions. The MHDC argues the village's denial of the zoning in 1971 had "racially discriminatory effects."

Schaumburg man still critical

A 28-year-old Schaumburg father of two, injured in a two-car crash in which his wife and another man were killed, remained in critical condition Tuesday at a Waukegan hospital. Spokesmen at St. Therese Hospital said Wayne Garreau, 1546 Revere Circle, remained critical following the Saturday night crash that killed his wife, Margaret, 27, and Mark Kaefer, 21, of Wonder Lake. Garreau's 8-year-old son, Scott, was released from Woodstock Memorial Hospital, Woodstock, Tuesday, while a daughter, Caroline, 6, remained in good condition at the hospital's pediatrics section Tuesday night. Thomas Lebrecht, 21, of Wonder Lake, driver of the van that hit the Garreau's auto, was reported in critical condition Tuesday at Sherman Hospital, Elgin.

Interchange try futile: official

Attempts by Schaumburg officials to obtain an interchange at Roselle Road and Northwest Tollway are futile, an official of the state tollway authority said Tuesday. "That site is practically pointless," said Richard E. Blakely, executive administrator and secretary of the Illinois Tollway Authority. "It just doesn't make sense and we don't need or want an interchange at Roselle Road." Blakely's comments came in the wake of remarks made Monday by Village Mgr. John E. Coste, who told the Schaumburg Business Development Commission that "the village has not given up its crusade" for a Roselle Road interchange and that the project always has been part of the village's master plan.

Judge disqualifies self in case

Circuit Court Judge Joseph M. Wosik Tuesday disqualified himself from Wheeling's lawsuit against former officials and firms connected with the 1974 zoning shakedown scandal, saying he has known defendant James Stavros "for many a year." He said, "If I know a litigant and rule against the village in a case, then I could be seriously challenged, even though I have not seen or spoken with him (Stavros) recently," he said. The village in August filed suit against four former officials and five firms in an attempt to recoup bribe money paid the officials. The suit also asks $1 million in punitive damages. Wosik said the case has been sent back to Donald J. O'Brien, presiding judge of the Chancery Division of the Cook County Circuit Court, for reassignment.

School money woes—whose fault?

This is the second part of a two-part series on "education's legislators" — Illinois Senators and Representatives who sponsor much of the state's education legislation.

Five of these legislators were interviewed to find out where education stands on the Illinois political scene.

by DIANE GRANAT

"The legislature takes all the heat. We're that nameless, faceless body out there," says Rep. Aaron Jaffe, D-Skokie, one of "education's legislators" in the Illinois General Assembly.

Jaffe is referring to the financial crisis plaguing Illinois schools, a problem local school officials would like to say is the state's fault.

School officials say the state has not supplied the money it promised local districts several years ago when a new method of school funding was adopted. The lower-than-expected state aid coupled with declining enrollments, inflation and other factors have created budget deficits in many of the state's school districts.

Some of the state legislators who influence the appropriation of money to public schools said financial troubles are not exclusive to schools — they apply to all areas of state government.

"SPENDING HAS BEEN very careful in all human service areas and in all governmental agencies," Rep. Eugenia Chapman, D-Arlington Heights, said.

The solution to the schools' money problems will have to come from both the state and local districts, most of the legislators interviewed by The Herald, said.

"In this financial crunch, state government has been reviewing and evaluating spending. Local districts have to do the same thing," Mrs. Chapman said.

Rep. Gene Hoffman, R-Elmhurst, said all fingers are pointing to the state because "somebody has to take the rap." But "I don't think the state is going to come up with enough money to satisfy everybody," he said.

"THERE WILL ALWAYS BE a financial crisis," Hoffman said. "There will never be enough money. the only question will be, how much of a crisis will there be?"

But other legislators say they are trying to find answers to the schools' financial dilemma.

Rep. Arthur Berman, D-Chicago, said an improvement will come only with economic recovery nationwide.

"I don't think we'll see any way out of the crisis for two, maybe three years," Berman said. "It will take that long for the economy and state resources to climb to their level before the recession."

SEN. BRADLEY GLASS, R-Northbrook, said the elimination of the tax rollback provision should allow some relief for school districts. The former school funding law set a limit for districts to tax residents and rolled back tax rates if districts exceeded that limit. The new law removes that limit.

Glass said it may be impossible to fully fund the state aid formula without a tax increase. "We may need it, and education may be one of the reasons," Glass said, adding that he has "no commitment" to an increase in taxes.

Schools also may have to rely more on the federal government to solve their financial crisis, Mrs. Chapman said. "If the federal government picks up a larger percentage of the tab, that would free up dollars in other areas," she said.

Mrs. Chapman also suggested the use of "zero budgeting" by local school districts to control growing deficits. Zero-based budgetting requires agencies to justify not only increases in their proposed budgets but also expenditures in their current budgets.

"YOU JUST CAN'T keep piling programs on programs and dollars on dollars," Mrs. Chapman said. "You have to look at what to delete in order to make way for other programs that are more important."

While state officials ponder a solution to the schools' fiscal problems, there are other education needs that must be considered in the future, legislators say.

Collective bargaining is the one future legislation need on the list of each representative and senator interviewed.

"It's going to come," Jaffe said of a collective bargaining bill in Illinois. "You have collective bargaining anyway — why pretend you don't?"

Glass said a bargaining law should apply to all public employes, not just teachers.

Other items which "education's legislators" said must be considered by the state's lawmakers include:

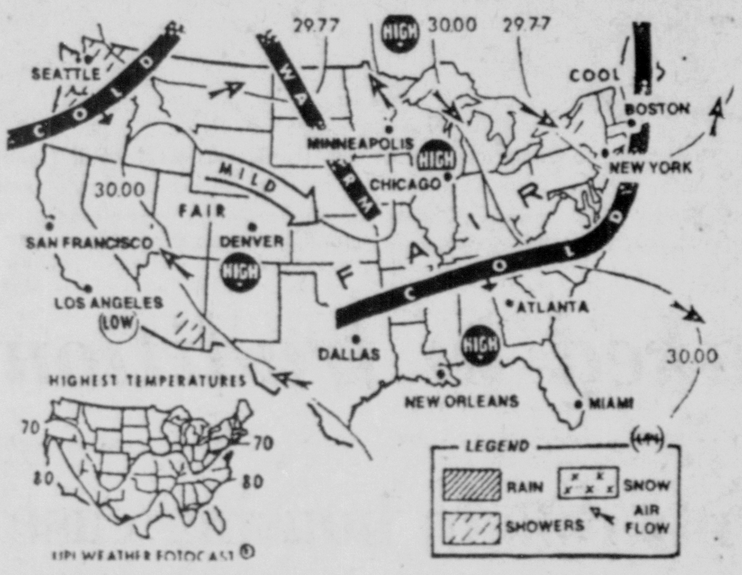

- Declining enrollment — new ways to combat a problem seriously affecting suburban school districts.
- Special education — new federal mandates for the education of handicapped children may require structural changes at the state level.
- State board of education and state school superintendent — how much power should they have?
- Consolidation of school districts

Although some legislators feel the state government has a long way to go before it adequately serves education, Hoffman said the feeling among most legislators is that education is being treated fairly. "The problem is that in the past it wasn't," he said.

China confirms Hua as Mao's successor

Hua Kua-feng

HONG KONG (UPI) — China confirmed Tuesday the appointment of Hua Kuo-feng as the new chairman of China's Communist party and the successor to Mao Tse-tung as the leader of one-fourth of all mankind.

The government spokesman who told reporters in Peking Hua's position was definite would not discuss a reported purge against Mao's widow, Chiang Ching, and three other high officials from the radical, ultraleftist branch of the Communist party known as the "Shanghai Mafia."

But the noncommittal nature of the reply lent credence to Western and Communist news reports from Peking that the four radicals were arrested last week for plotting a power seizure after Mao's death Sept. 9.

Hua's accession to power and the radical purge may mean a sharp shift in China's policies, but the significance of the developments probably will not be known for months.

"The Chinese are very satisfied with the development of events," the Yugoslav news agency Tanjug said in a dispatch from Peking.

The Italian news agency reported from Peking that about 40 persons were arrested in addition to Madame Mao, including Culture Minister Yu Hui-yung. The dispatch quoted "sources that are considered reliable."

Tanjug also reported the Chinese army increased its patrols in Peking's main square, on the capital's principal streets and in front of office buildings.

The West German news agency Deutsche Press Agentur said units of the Peking Guard Regiment drilled outside Peking's "Great Hall of the People" Tuesday and "simulated target shooting with light machine guns." Such military exercises are not unusual in Peking, but DPA said observers thought the drill could be a show of force in view of the rumors of widespread leadership changes.

Relatively little is known of Hua's background. Official Chinese documents do not even list his age, although he is generally thought to be in his 50s.

Sources in Peking whom UPI contacted by telephone from Hong Kong said an official of the foreign ministry's information department confirmed Hua's elevation to reporters at a welcoming banquet for visiting Papua New Guinea Prime Minister Michael Somare.

Both Chinese Vice Premier Li Hsien-nien, a close associate of the late Premier Chou En-lai, and Somare referred to Hua in banquet toasts only as "premier." Reporters asked the spokesman, "How long will we have to wait before there is an official announcement on Hua's appointment?"

"I can now confirm that he is chairman of the Communist Party Central Committee," the spokesman replied.

The Chinese official said an official announcement was being delayed because it was necessary to inform party cadres throughout China — the world's most populous nation, with more than 800 million people — of the action first, sources told UPI.

The spokesman responded with a terse "no comment" when asked about the reported arrest of Mao's 62-year-old widow and the Shanghai trio — Chang Chung —Chiao, Wang Hung-wen and Yao Wen-yuan.

Wang in his 40s, is a party vice chairman who some observers felt held a No. 3 ranking in China after Mao and Hua. Chang, in his 60s and No. 4 in the party hierarchy, is party secretary general and chief political commissar of the armed forces, Yao, 50, a party theoretician, has been a member of the political bureau (Politburo) of the central committee since 1969. All are ranking members of the Shanghai party branch and have been closely associated with Madame Mao since their leadership of the Cultural Revolution 10 years ago.

Although there has been no hard evidence to support the reports of their purge, diplomats and other China analysts in Peking and Hong Kong said the lack of an official denial gave credence to the reports.

A "no comment" by Chinese officials to such reports is unusual. The past pattern has been for officials to issue vigorous denials of reports that have no basis in fact.

Peking sources said the purge of the four radicals now was being talked about openly among low-level party cadres in Peking.

Action was taken against Madame Mao and the three Shanghai leaders because of their opposition to Hua's elevation to the party chairmanship and an alleged plot to seize power, the sources said.

The appointment of Premier Hua caught China watchers in the United States off guard but American experts believe his elevation eventually will lead to closer ties between the two countires.

Ehrlichman, Haldeman and Mitchell to jail?

Watergate trio's convictions upheld

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The U.S. Court of Appeals, citing "overwhelming evidence of their guilt," Tuesday affirmed the Watergate coverup convictions and eight-year prison sentences of former Nixon aides John N. Mitchell, John Ehrlichman and H. R. Haldeman.

With a single exception in its 201-page opinion, the appeals panel upheld dozens of decisions and instructions by Judge John J. Sirica during the three-month trial.

The seven appeals judges, dealing separately with numerous claims by the three defendants, held that Sirica did not abuse his discretion, commit legal error or reveal prejudice.

All three men remain free, but Sirica now can set a date for them to report to federal marshals and begin serving their coverup sentences.

The court fund a single reversible error in the companion appeal by former Assistant Attorney General Robert Mardian. The court said Sirica should have permitted Mardian to stand trial apart from the other three because his lawyer was hospitalized early in the trial and Mardian had relatively little involvement in the Watergate coverup.

The court said there was no evidence the jury verdict "rested on anything other than the overwhelming evidence of their guilt." It said Sirica "took particular care" in questioning prospective jurors "to ensure that the trial was a fair one."

On one major point raised by Haldeman, Ehrlichman and Mitchell, the appeals court ruled 6 to 1 that their cases were not prejudiced by pre-trial publicity.

The four men were convicted by a jury Jan. 1, 1975, on charges they conspired to obstruct justice and lied to a grand jury to cover up White House involvement in the 1972 break-in at national Democratic headquarters.

Haldeman, once President Nixon's chief of staff, Ehrlichman, the one-time No. 2 man at the White House, and Mitchell, the former attorney general, each drew a 2½ to eight-year prison sentence. Mardian, convicted only of conspiracy, was sentenced to 10 months to three years in prison.

There was no immediate comment from Haldeman, Ehrlichman or Mitchell.

But their lawyers said they would take their appeal to the Supreme Court.

As for Mardian, the Watergate Special Prosecutor's Office can drop the charges, retry him or appeal its defeat to the Supreme Court.

If Mitchell's conviction stands, he could become the first former member of the Cabinet to go behind bars since former Interior Secretary Albert B. Fall was imprisoned for his role in the Teapot Dome scandal of the 1920s.

Ehrlichman already is asking the Supreme Court to reverse his conviction and 20-month to five-year sentence for approving the break-in by White House "plumbers" at the office of Daniel Ellsberg's psychiatrist. On the question of pre-trial publicity, the judges held it amounted to factual accounts of events.

Insurgents ambush Thai police car

Communist insurgents ambushed Thai government forces near the Malaysian border Tuesday in the first attack since last week's military coup, police sources said. Three policemen were killed and one was wounded in the attack at a hilltop pass in the Padpa mountains of Trang province. An estimated 50 Communist guerrillas riddled a police patrol car with small arms fire, grabbed two HK33 German-designed rifles and two revolvers from the dead and wounded policemen, then hurled a grenade into the car before fleeing back into the jungle. The stretch of highway where the ambush occurred has been the scene of Communist guerrilla activity for a year.

Panel to probe Indian jetliner crash

Indian Aviation Minister Raj Bahadur said Tuesday a court of inquiry headed by a high court judge will investigate the crash of an Indian Arlines jetliner that killed all 95 persons aboard. Witnesses said the French-built Caravelle jet caught fire and crashed shortly after takeoff early Tuesday on a domestic flight to Madras. Police said 75 bodies had been recovered from the charred wreckage, which was carrying 89 passengers and a crew of six. It was not immediately determined whether any foreigners were aboard.

Court to decide foster parents issue

The Supreme Court agreed Tuesday to decide whether it is constitutional for state or local agencies to take children away from foster parents without a hearing. In a brief order, the court accepted for review a ruling by a three-judge federal court striking down provisions in New York state and New York City laws on grounds they contained no provision for such independent fact-finding.

In another action, the court rejected challenges of a Federal Communications Commission rule, upheld 2 to 1 by the U.S. Court of Appeals here, which opened the way for the debates between President Ford and Jimmy Carter. The FCC ruled that news conferences by political candidates, and by extension the debates, are not subject to equal time requirements. The case was appealed to the Supreme Court by the Democratic National Committee and other parties.

Ford signs toxic substances bill

Hailing it as a major environmental advance, President Ford Tuesday signed into law legislation establishing new federal controls on chemicals and other toxic substances which could harm human health and the environment. The bill, which was supported by 30 environmental, labor and consumer groups, also gives the EPA power to prevent or limit a chemical's use after a study of its health and environmental impact. Included is a two-year ban on a hazardous chemical known as PCBs.

Ford also signed a bill to maintain federal funding for health, education, welfare and labor programs at present levels until the next Congress enacts legislation appropriating money for them.

Ford admits mistake, lashes Carter

by United Press International

President Ford, under a barrage of attacks from Jimmy Carter, lashed back at his Democratic challenger Tuesday by questioning his leadership and ability to "guide the fortunes of the most powerful nation on Earth."

Carter issued a statement saying he would restructure the Medicaid system and accused the Ford administration of failing to combat fraud in the program, while trying to shift a larger share of the hospital bill to the patient.

Ford, shortly before starting his campaign swing to New York and New Jersey, questioned whether a candidate who calls for a "cut in the defense budget, and who then complains that we are 'not strong any more,' as Gov. Carter has done, is truly the man to govern the only country in the world that can assure the defense of freedom."

The comments followed a White House meeting with a group of ethnic leaders in which Ford admitted he made a "mistake" last week in saying the Russians do not dominate Eastern Europe.

"I did not express myself clearly; I admit it," Ford said of the remark which caused problems for his campaign, particularly among Americans with ties to Eastern Europe.

But then going on the attack, Ford challenged whether "a man who shows so little appreciation of America's strength, America's respect, and America's needs — as my opponent has done in this campaign — should be allowed to guide the fortunes of the most powerful nation on Earth."

Later, Ford spoke at a Jewish high school in Brooklyn and told a cheering crowd of about 5,000 that he will act "again and again and again" to seek the release of Jews who wish to emigrate from the Soviet Union.

The President also vowed to go to Israel if elected and if such a trip would aid peace in the Middle East.

Carter, beginning a two-day rest stop at his home in Plains, Ga., complained that it has been a month since congressional probers revealed that between $3 billion and $5 billion in Medicaid money is being wasted in fraud and "still the administration has made no response at all."

"It has offered no substantial proposals, not even a suggestion as to how it intends to reclaim these vast sums for the victims of poverty and illness who so desperately need help," he said.

He also claimed that administration proposals "would impose on Medicare patients the staggering burden of $1 billion in additional payment responsibilities."

Carter said he would restructure the system to eliminate fraud and waste as part of a gradual phasing-in of a national, comprehensive health care system. He also proposed reimbursing hospitals under a bonus system if they are able to cut costs and deliver services at rates lower than levels set by the government.

Abortion restraining order extended

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The government said in U.S. District Court Tuesday that states may be required to provide free abortions even though the use of federal funds is barred under new legislation.

But attorneys for low income women told Judge John Sirica that up to 1,000 women a day, by government estimate, will be denied abortions that had been financed under Medicaid because of the new prohibition.

Sirica extended for another 10 days a temporary restraining order against government application of the law and took the case under advisement.

Abortion has figured as a presidential campaign issue and the law providing operating funds for the Department of Health, Education and Welfare that took affect Oct. 1 provides that "None of the funds contained in this act shall be used to perform abortions, except when the life of the mother would be endangered if the fetus were carried into term."

This, however, does not preclude states from providing abortions to indigent women with state funds, Justice Department attorney David Anderson told the court.

"It may be, as a number of recent cases hold, that the law requires the state to fund a woman's exercise of her constitutional right to an abortion in certain circumstances," the government argued in its legal brief.

Neither Maryland, Virginia nor the District of Columbia has refused or proposed to refuse abortions to any indigent woman, the brief said.

"There is therefore no indication that the Congress' failure to provide funds for abortion will in any way interfere with the plaintiffs' opportunity to obtain one," the government argued.

But an attorney for several unidentified pregnant women, including one unmarried mother of five, said the government's arguments "ignore the inevitable and obvious impact on pregnant indigent women who depend upon Medicaid for their medical care."

He said the states and the District of Columbia "have no funds" to replace the loss of the estimated $40 million to $45 million HEW spends annually for between 250,000 and 300,000 abortions.

Attorney Roy Lucas, representing the women, said some hospitals and clinics were discontinuing Medicaid abortions until the litigation is settled. It will be "little consolation" to women denied abortions now if court suits eventually are settled in their favor, he said.

George Washington ranked 6-star general by Ford

People

• President Ford Tuesday signed a bill that promotes George Washington to the rank of six-star general of the armies so that the father of his country would stand above "all other grades of the Army, past and present." The move, however, created something of a dispute among military historians, who noted that in 1919 Congress also promoted Gen. John J. "Black Jack" Pershing to six-star general of the armies with similar statements it wanted him to outrank all other military heroes. Pershing never wore his six-star rank. He preferred to continue to wear the uniform of a four-star general.

• Rubin "Hurricane" Carter, the former boxer who fought for nine years to overturn a triple murder conviction Tuesday appeared for his retrial confident of being exonerated. Carter and his co-defendant, John Artis, served nine years in prison before being released for the new trial, ordered last year by the New Jersey Supreme Court.

• Baron Vladimir Kurt von Pousental got a bit of a shock with his toast and orange juice recently in Miami — an auto insurance bill for $5,362. The 81-year-old Von Pousental, complained it was a bit steep for his two-year-old chauffeured car, and what's more, his chauffeur had not collected 70 points for traffic violations his insurance company claimed. Oops, replied the insurance company computer. One zero too many against the chauffeur.

Restraint of trade charged in gas suit

A $20 million suit was filed in U.S. District Court Tuesday charging the American Gas Assn., six utility companies and seven individuals with restraint of trade in trying to keep an energy-saving device off the market. Jack McInerney, an attorney for Thrifty-Vent Inc., Chicago, said the device, called the Thrifty-Vent, "replaces the draft diverter on a furnace" and reduces fuel consumption. It gives customers a "saving of 8 to 16 per cent" on their total gas bill, he said. AGA refused to test the device for safety, the suit says, and utility companies would not allow gas to be delivered to furnaces containing the device unless the AGA would give its approval, even though inspectors in several cities had declared the device safe.

The utilities named in the suit include: Northern Illinois Gas Co.; People's Gas, Light and Coke Co.; Central Illinois Public Service Co.; Indiana Gas Co., Inc.; Metropolitan Utilities District, Omaha, Neb.; and the Illinois Power Co. Many gas manufacturers belong to the AGA, which has headquarters in Washington, D.C.

Man indicted in shooting of cop

A Cook County grand jury Tuesday indicted Ronald Carrasquillo, 18, on one count of attempted murder and one count of aggravated battery in the shooting of an off-duty Chicago policeman. Carrasquillo, a reputed gang member, is accused of shooting patrolman Terrence Loftus in the face Sunday when the police officer tried to break up a gang fight on the city's West Side. Loftus died later Tuesday in St. Elazabeth's Hospital.

Illinois briefs

Ford to take state on Nov. 2: Percy

Sen. Charles Percy said Tuesday he does not think either President Ford or Jimmy Carter has inspired strong convictions among supporters, but predicted Ford will carry Illinois by a few percentage points. He said Ford's remarks on Eastern Europe could have lost him the election if they had been made later in the campaign because of the "thinness" of Ford's support. But he said, "There's time to recover."

Percy also said he will probably seek reelection in 1978 and expects substantial Democratic support if Gov. Daniel Walker runs against him. Walker has said he might be interested in making the challenge, and Mayor Richard J. Daley has indicated he might support Walker in the effort.

Thompson raps Daley policies

Republican Gubernatorial candidate James R. Thompson said Tuesday Mayor Richard J. Daley discriminates politically against Eastern European ethnic groups in Chicago while expressing sympathy for their relatives overseas. "The mayor's concern for Poles, Hungarians, Rumanians and Yugoslavs in Eastern Europe is a touching one not exactly matched by his concern for those ethnic groups in the city of Chicago in the way he allows them to participate in the political process," Thompson told a news conference. "There's sort of a double standard involved there," he said. "I daresay the Poles in the city of Chicago would be even happier with the mayor and the Democratic party if on other occasions he allowed them a little more freedom."

Thompson made the comments in response to a remark Daley made after the second presendential debate. The mayor asked whether Thompson agreed with Ford that Eastern Europe is not under Soviet domination.Thompson said Tuesday, "I think the President was wrong. I think I know what he was trying to say . . But it was simply wrong to say the Soviet Union does not dominate those countries."

2 jail escapees sentenced

Two of the five prisoners who escaped the U.S. Penitentiary near Marion Oct. 10, 1975, touching off a mammoth manhunt, were sentenced Tuesday in U.S. District Court to consecutive terms of 5 years each on escape charges. All five prisoners later were recaptured. The sentences against Henry M. Gargano, 44, Chicago, and Arthur T. Mankins, 38, Germantown, N.C., were imposed Tuesday by Judge William G. Juergens on guilty pleas entered Sept. 2 Mankins also was sentenced to an additional 10-year consecutive term on four firearms charges. The escape charge sentence against Gargano will be consecutive to a 199-year sentence he was serving at the time of the escape for the murder of two policemen while commiting a bank robbery, federal authorities said.

'Heart attacks caused deaths'

flu shots.

"It is highly unlikely a bad batch of vaccine was the cause of these deaths," he said.

At the Bureau of Biologics in Bethesda, Md., researchers prepared to look for contamination in residue taken from the bottles of vaccine used to inoculate the victims.

J. Donald Millar, director of the disease control center's Bureau of State Services, said if the residue showed no contamination, and "pending any further developments," the center's investigation could be halted today.

"As far as I'm concerned, the only investigation that remains is the question of what's in those (serum) bottles," Millar said. "That is a very remote possibility, but the only possibility, that the vaccine was involved in the deaths."

OFFICIALS IN Allegheny County, Pa., New Mexico, Illinois, Louisiana, Maine, Texas, Vermont, Virginia, and Wisconsin halted their swine flu immunization programs while the Pennsylvania deaths were being studied.

Additionally, several states that received some of the 1.1 million doses of vaccine in the lot manufactured by Parke-Davis Pharmaceuticals of Detroit, Mich. shelved it pending the investigation.

The type of vaccine used by the victims was bivalent, and the lot in question was shipped mainly to Eastern and Midwestern states.

In Detroit, a Parke-Davis spokesman said the company was cooperating with Pennsylvania officials on the case and said he understood the vaccine sent there had been rechecked "and found up to specifications." He said a check at 20 other vaccination sites had disclosed no problems.

The victims were Julia Bucci, 75, Charles Gabig, 71 and Ella Michael, 74, all of Pittsburgh. Each had past heart ailments, and Mrs. Bucci additionally had high blood pressure and Mrs. Michael suffered from emphysema.

THEY WERE IMMUNIZED as part of the government's $135 million program to protect Americans from a possible outbreak of flu this fall and winter.

Most states followed Sencer's advice to continue the inoculations, and the reaction from New Jersey Health Comr. Joanne Finley, who believed the deaths were the normal results of old age, was typical:

"Unfortunately, old people are going to die," she said.

Swine-flu shots outside Chicago are suspended no evidence to link the vaccine to the deaths.

The three deaths involved two women and a man, all elderly and believed t o have suffered from chronic heart conditions. The three died Tuesday within hours of receiving swine flu inoculations at a Pittsburgh clinic on Monday.

DR. BROWN SAID late Tuesday at least two of the deaths were confirmed by Pennsylvania coroners to be heart attacks.

He said the normal daily death rate among persons older than 70 is one per 4,000 persons, and that three deaths could have been caused by natural causes.

In Suburban Cook County, some 15,000 doses of vaccine have been sent for the first inoculations of the elderly, said Dr. John B. Hall, county health director.

First priority was to go to residents of more than 100 nursing homes, he said, with the following shipment earmarked for persons 60 and older and those in medical high risk categories, he said.

Earlier Tuesday, state and county public heath officials had said the swine flu program would continue because no direct link between the vaccine and the deaths has been discovered.

Refrigeration Roll

by Ed Landwehr

A frequent question at Landwehr's TV & Appliance Center, 1000 W. Northwest Hwy., Arlington Heights is the one about "picture roll" when the refrigerator starts up.

Ordinarily your TV screen is momentarily affected by the voltage drop when an appliance starts, particularly when it is on the same circuit. The picture will make a slight movement or possibly one roll over. However, it should not cause a continuing roll. If it does, one reason could be that your appliance is emitting a spark or unusual pulse from the motor. Repairing the appliance or putting it on another circuit will solve this problem for your TV comfort.

Keep calling that number 255-0700; we're glad to be of service to you.

DON JOHNSON fillets fish at his fish market, Don's Docks, 1220 Miner St., Des Plaines. He and other small commercial fishermen now are prohibited from fishing in Lake Michigan.

Lake Michigan fishing ban didn't stop Johnsons

by DIANE MERMIGAS

There is no other way of life for Don Johnson and his family.

The state restricted commercial fishing in Lake Michigan about a year ago, limiting fishing to three large commercial operations selected each year by lottery. The severe restrictions did not force the closing of Johnson's small fish market in Des Plzines, but it keeps him from operating his boat off Illinois shores.

Johnson said the restriction raised the price of fresh and frozen fish for both the businessman and the consumer because he has been forced to buy his fish from Canada and the American coasts.

HE, HIS WIFE and their children work hard in their shop to 1220 Miner St. and still make a good living at what they do, which for the most part is scaling, cleaning and preparing all types of fish.

In his reserved, easy manner, Johnson never will say much about the fact that the state's action has changed his business because, actually, it has changed his entire life. Johnson's 24-year-old son, Andy, grew up on a boat that surged through the Great Lakes waters in a quest for perch.

The boat was his grandfather's, the "Daryl J," a fisherman's vessel that extended 25 feet from the bow to the afterdeck and stretched 10 feet at the beam.

TODAY THE BOAT remains docked at Washington Island, just north of Door County, Wis., where Grandfather Johnson has retired and from where the three generations of Norwegian seamen came.

It is used only for pleasure now, because Johnson and his son no longer rise with the sun at 4 a.m. to head out to Lake Michigan for a day's catch which must be cleaned and then sold.

"It was not fun, but a lot of hard work, getting up that early and working with a temperamental Lake Michigan," Johnson said.

"It was back-breaking work, repairing the nets, pulling in the tungs of fish, scaling and filleting them, then selling them in our store the same day," he said.

"BUT THERE WAS a pride that the fisherman could take in selling and serving his own catch. That's gone now," Johnson said.

The cold and miserable days of blowing wind and water were trying on a man's nerves, but the work was "rewarding," Johnson and his son agree.

There was some element of the unknown in the business back then. During the spring-to-fall fishing season, you never knew just what you'd catch each day. It could be anywhere from five to several hundred pounds of perch.

Now, Andy travels to the Fulton Avenue fish market in Chicago four times each week to buy 60-pound crates of fresh lake perch, wall-eyed pike, trout and smelt; frozen ocean fish like turbot or shrimp from the gulf of Mexico.

There's still the scaling and cleaning, which is part of the day-long preparation requiring the constant effort of four persons. What seems incidental, like the pouring of seafood sauce into individual containers, the folding of napkins, the making of potato salad and cole slaw, and the frying of fish in a family recipe batter is not.

Sister Cheryl and Andy's wife, Donna, also help in the shop, one of three fish markets that the Des Plaines family has owned in the city during the past 16 years.

The Johnsons keep it a family business "because you can always depend on hour family" and because "it takes years of work to master the art of cleaning shrimp and filleting fish," Cheryl said.

Don's Dock, as the family shop is called, sells 500 pounds of fish weekly to long-time customers, lunchtime executives, dieters who have discovered the low-cholesterol features of seafood and even to mischievous children who come in asking for shark's meat, Johnson said.

FRIDAY'S TRADITIONALLY "fish day," and things are busiest during holidays and the lenten season. The family still does a healthy business every day the store is open, Johnson said. The shop is closed Mondays.

Grandfather Johnson still passes his time in Washington Island hook and lining off the docks, but the rest of the family doesn't find recreational fishing as exciting a match as commercial fishing.

Grandfather Johnson, who came to Chicago as a young man of 18 with the ambitious dreams of a commercial isherman, was somewhat distressed by the state's ban against such fishing more than a year ago, Johnson said.

"But, I still love my work. That ban never really threatened our existence," he said. "It just made us change our ways a little."

New unit school hearings for Dist. 59 begin today

Public hearings on the financial and educational aspects of the Elk Grove Township Dist. 59 area unit school district proposal will begin at 7:30 p.m. today at Elk Grove High School.

The proposed unit district includes Forest View and Elk Grove high schools in High School Dist. 214 in addition to Dist. 59 schools. The elementary and high schools would be placed under one school board and administration and the unit district would have the same boundaries as Dist. 59.

Dist. 59 is one of seven elementary districts in the High School Dist. 214 area.

The unit district has met strong opposition from Dist. 214 officials who say the proposed district would take about 40 per cent of the high school district's tax base but only about 27 per cent of the students.

DIST. 59 OFFICIALS favor the unit district, saying tax revenue generated from the local residents would remain in the area rather than being used to support the larger area of Dist. 214.

Anyone affected by the proposed unit district may testify at tonight's hearing at Elk Grove High School, 500 Elk Grove Blvd., Elk Grove Village. Future hearing dates and times will be established before tonight's hearing ends about 10 p.m.

After all interested parties have been heard, County Schools' Supt. Richard Martwick will make a recommendation on the unit district to Illinois Schools Supt. Joseph Cronin.

Cronin will decide whether an election will be conducted on the issue. If an election is conducted, only Dist. 59 residents will be eligible to vote.

Last arguments due in housing case

says the arguments of Willis Caruso, housing corporation attorney, are "fabricated."

The housing corporation's argument is that the village refused to rezone the site for Lincoln Green for racially discriminatory reasons.

"We've argued from the beginning that the motivation of the village was to keep blacks out. People at meetings pretty much said 'We don't want those sort of people in Arlington Heights,' " Caruso said.

"There's no question that the reason this case is where it is is because racial discrimination is involved. Equal protection and racial discrimination — that is the central issue," he said.

SIEGEL HAS argued in the district court and the circuit court that the case is a "garden-variety" zoning issue.

"There were absolutely no racial overtones in that case. We (Arlington Heights) have never received a single complaint by any blacks in Arlington Heights that they have been discriminated against by developers, apartment managers or real estate brokers," he said.

"My greatest regret about this case is that the village has been slandered in that regard," he said.

Housing corporation attorneys have called Arlington Heights "the most residentially segregated community" in the Chicago area. Of the 64,000 residents in the village in 1970, there were only 27 blacks.

A special census conducted this summer has revealed that of 71,012 persons now living in Arlington Heights, 200 are blacks.

The Circuit Court's written decision said that the segregated nature of housing in Arlington Heights required an evaluation of the effects of the failure to rezone the Lincoln Green site.

"THOUGH THE building of this project might have only minimal effects in terms of alleviating the segregative housing problem for the entire Chicago area, it might well result in increasing Arlington Heights' minority population by over 1,000 per cent," Judge Luther M. Swygert wrote.

"What is even more crucial is that the suburb has not sponsored nor participated in any low-income housing developments, nor does the record reflect any such plans for the future," he said.

Siegel says the Circuit Court opinion, if upheld, will upset local zoning laws nationwide.

"They are telling us we must make zoning decisions on the basis of the race of people who would live there rather than on the best use of the land. It would mean anyone who came in with plans to build low- and moderate-income housing could overturn existing zoning where there wasn't a substantial number of blacks," Siegel said.

"My understanding of the 14th Amendment is that you can not discriminate on the basis of race, which would mean the court of appeals decision is discriminatory," he said.

The objections of homeowners in the area of St. Viator High School are as intense now as they were in 1971 when more than 700 persons attended a plan commission meeting on the Lincoln Green proposal, said Clark Barkes, president of the Greater Eastwood Community Assn.

"Our objections are as intense as ever, but not for the reasons most people think. We believe that project would be spot zoning and we don't want to see it rezoned (for multi-family use) for anybody. It would take away the neighborhood's continuity," Barkes said.

Watch committee meeting tonight

The Arlington Heights Neighborhood Watch Committee will have its monthly meeting at 7:30 p.m. today at village hall, 33 S. Arlington Heights Rd. Wednesday of every month. All interested citizens are invited to attend.

payments.

RINELLA DISAGREED with Ostron's view of the case and claimed there is "not really any Constitutional case involved."

Edward Rosenberg of Chicago, Lane's attorney, said, "If the separation of church and state in the U.S. Constitution doesn't reach far enough I don't know what does.

"The court has required him to contribute to the church," he said. "It's very sad, in my opinion, to think that the courts are closed to the average citizen."

Court action cloaked in tradition

Heights, who at 10 a.m. today will address the U.S. Supreme Court justices similarly as oral arguments begin in the village's case against the Metropolitan Housing Development Corp. of Chicago.

F. WILLIS CARUSO, Carol M. Petersen and Robert G. Schwemm, the development corporation's attorneys, also are in Tuesday morning's audience.

The cases they watch are in no way similar to the one they will argue before the court, but the attorneys are able to get a better idea of how the court conducts its business.

Siegel will speak first today. He will have 30 minutes to state the village's position. Caruso will argue approximately 30 minutes, and then Siegel will have a chance to respond to Caruso's statements during whatever is left of the 60 minutes set aside for the five-year-old case.

The attorneys will stand at a lectern placed in front of the center of the bench where the Chief Justice sits. Burger is flanked on his left by Potter Stewart, Thurgood Marshall, Lewis F. Powell Jr. and John Paul Stevens. To Burger's right are William J. Brennan Jr., Byron R. White, Harry A. Blackmun and William H. Rehnquist. They seem to surround the attorneys' lectern as they sit at the bench.

MUCH OF THE time allotted to the attorneys will be spent answering questions, which the justices fire rapidly.

The attorneys have no chance to ramble and often are interrupted ungraciously by a justice's question. If their questions are dodged, the justices do not hide their impatience.

One attorney Tuesday, pinned down by Justice Stevens, embarrassingly said, "I believe you have me, your Honor."

There always remains that politeness, the constant respect. Like the quill pens, black robes and openisg chant by the court crier, respect is a tradition that has persisted on the Supreme Court through the years.

The way we see it

Without evidence Scott's wiretap case is weak

During the closing days of this campaign, Illinois Atty. Gen. William Scott has rehashed an old set of charges that Gov. Daniel Walker wiretapped his office phones.

Scott's pronouncement included a charge that Walker conspired with organized crime figures to bug the office in exchange for a parole for one of their gangland comrades.

Scott first made the wiretap charge many months ago, but he failed to back up the allegations with any evidence.

He rekindled the issue last week with a few new twists and no more substance than the first time.

Making unsubstantiated charges is never acceptable, particularly when the accuser is the state's top legal officer. Scott should know better.

We have viewed Scott's performance and thus far have found it to be innovative and in the best interests of Illinois residents. Charges such as the one against Walker without the appropriate documentation can only tarnish that record.

If the attorney general has evidence that he has been illegally wiretapped by Walker operatives, organized crime or anyone else, he should take the evidence to the nearest U.S. Attorney for investigation.

If he doesn't, Scott would do well to drop this comment from his campaign and stick to more solid issues during the remaining weeks before the election.

Plan commission too valuable to allow absences

Since March 1975, there have been only two plan commission meetings at which the full membership of the Elk Grove Village plan commission has been present.

It represents a dismal attendance record in need of immediate attention by Elk Grove Village Pres. Charles J. Zettek, particularly in these times of burgeoning development plans which plan commission members must scrutinize and approve.

We realize that commissioners are not paid and volunteer many hours to their public jobs. But regardless, residents of Elk Grove deserve better representation on such an important commission.

Zettek himself has compounded the problem by failing to appoint a ninth member to a position which has been open for more than a year. He should make the appointment immediately.

The commission's lack of a full membership becomes important when coupled with the spotty attendance of at least two commissioners.

Of 37 meetings since March 1975, 17 had only five members present.

Since January 1975, Comr. Alvin Krasnow has attended 18 of a possible 41 meetings, or 44 per cent, and Comr. Leah Cummins has attended 24 meetings, a 58.5 per cent attendance record. The attendance of the other commissioners ranges from 69 per cent to 86 per cent.

Krasnow has suffered from health problems, and Mrs. Cummins has been out of the state on summer school study. Both seem legitimate reasons for absences, but when that is compounded with other members who occasionally miss meetings, the plan commission is conspicuously underrepresented.

Zettek and other village board members should evaluate the attendance, counsel the members who have not shown up, and determine whether their attendance records will improve.

If not, they should be replaced, for there must be more energetic Elk Grove Village residents who could make valuable contributions to the development of that community.

They could use you as a volunteer if you've got some time to spare

Now that fall has arrived, the children are back in school, vacation memories are packed away and it's time to start another season. Have you thought to include in your busy schedule a tiny pocket of time devoted to helping someone? So many of us have focused our energies on school, or jobs, or hobbies and pastimes — all good and necessary to our way of life.

But how about an hour a week to give to a young girl whose way of life depends on others?

Tierney is 11 years old, a dark haired, bright eyed girl who loves poetry, silly jokes and her dog, Moses. She would love to be back in school instead of doing her book work at home, but she can't. Tierney has cerebral palsy; she was born without the muscle control you and I take for granted. She cannot walk by herself, or feed herself, or even talk, though her thoughts must be aching to be spoken.

Tierney has been working with the Doman Delacato patterning program for the last 15 months and has made fantastic progress thanks to scores of volunteers who have worked with her. But the program must continue at full force if she is to achieve any degree of independence. Intellectually, Tierney is capable of learning from and contributing to the world, but she must be physically able to meet it.

Can your need to help another human being find Tierney's need to be helped? Housewife, businessman or woman, teen, retiree: if you can donate one hour a week (you choose the most convenient time) please call me for more details.

Words of praise

I would like to extend a heartfelt thanks to The Herald and to all the people who donated baby items for our Baby Boutique in September. It was a great success for which we are very pleased.

The Concerned Parents Organization for High Risk Infants (C.P.O) is a young group devoted to helping parents of a critically ill child through the weeks and months of having their child in Lutheran General's High Risk Nursery. It's a painful time for many of them and who can better help them than those of us who have been there ourselves.

The funds we earned will benefit the High Risk Nursery and for this we thank each and everyone who took the time to donate items or came to the sale.

Worthy of note

My husband and I wish to thank the wonderful man who stopped his van and helped us Monday, Oct. 4, about 8 p.m. in front of Sondag Chevrolet.

Although he was headed in the opposite direction, he stopped, turned on his blinkers and helped my husband get our car started. We had no lights; the battery was dead and without him we could have been in an accident too.

It's nice to know there are people like him who take time out of their busy day to help others and refuse pay. Since we don't know his name, this is the only way we have to thank him and let the readers know, "May good health be with you always, whoever you are."

Editors not taking any chances

Does reader want the obscenities?

by TOM TIEDE

WASHINGTON — What did Earl Butz say? Although he was forced to resign his cabinet position for making a racial remark, the remark itself has not been printed nor repeated in the media.

There have been censored versions of the comment, written in a code which asks the public to fill in the blanks, but most Americans still do not know precisely what forced the Agriculture secretary from office.

Similarly, many Americans are still confused about Jimmy Carter's remarks to Playboy magazine. News accounts say he talked bluntly, using earthy language, including a word meaning intercourse, but editorial tradition prevented much of the media from being entirely specific.

And then there was l'affaire Rockefeller. Last month the vice president raised his middle finger in salute to a rowdy clutch of hecklers, and the public, forever protected against this kind of realism, was told the maneuver was a "gesture," a "dirty gesture," or in one notable case, a "dirty Italian gesture linked to fornication."

Don't look for real truth here, either. This column is tied to the same hoary ethic as the rest of the popular print industry: Everything is fit to print save dirty words. One breaks the rule at his peril, to be sure; last year an editor in Dayton, Ohio, published a grand jury transcript which included a four-letter word meaning coitus, and the outcry was so great he quickly resigned.

At that, the situation is far better than it used to be in the business. For instance it was not until red-baiter Joe McCarthy began to release his arrows that the word "homosexual" was allowed in the daily prints. And the word "rape" was kept out even longer, editors using "violate," or sometimes "ravage," to describe such crimes. "Sodomy," as I understand it, is still a no-no for many police reporters.

The logic behind all this has been fueled by benevolence. Also economics. The popular media reports to a nonselective audience: unlike Hustler, which is bought by customers for one reason, newspapers and the electronic media are purchased for another, and never the twain shall meet. When the content of a "family newspaper" falls below an imaginary line, e.g. four-letter words, subscriptions can be lost.

And so in cases where the vice president gives the bird to the rowdies, or a cabinet secretary says black people enjoy defecating under preheated conditions, the public gets the word without the words. When an 18-year-old lad is shot in the eye in Vietnam, we say it plain, but we print Richard Nixon's transcripts with deleted obscenities.

It is of course not as if the newspaper-television industry are otherwise paragons of morality. Some kind of advance sex education can be acquired from the papers these days simply by reading the ads for the X- and R-rated movies: "Hot and Horny," or "She went all the way but he wanted more." As for television, the same networks that will not reveal Jimmy Carter's language regularly project explicit acts of murder and sadism into the homes of eager viewers.

Hence there is an appalling sort of hypocrisy here. In Washington, as example, the news-reading public has recently been treated to a grisly photograph of three assassins being hanged in Syria, a front-page feature describing the terror of a young prison inmate waiting in his bed for a homosexual assault, and advertisement photographs of a go-go dancer who is reported to have the largest mammary glands in America. And yet what did Earl Butz say? That has been censored.

Benevolence or no, censorship in any name is risky. What Butz said was wrong, but not so terrible as the imagination may perceive. One recalls that the response to the Nixon transcript deletions was ignorantly exaggerated, that it became sport to guess what words were omitted, that in fact the complete transcripts showed the language to be generally mild and so the ex-President had been done a disservice.

What is obscenity anyway? As Samuel Butler wrote, "Cannibalism is moral in cannibal country." Surely starvation and war and disease are obscene. One might wish for a time when the media would run out of filth to reflect; until then none of it should fairly be expurgated.

UAW workers approve Ford pact

DETROIT (UPI) — The United Auto Workers Union announced late Tuesday that 170,000 Ford Motor Co. workers who have been on strike for 28 days have narrowly approved a new three-year contract.

Some 25,000 skilled tradesmen, who threatened to scuttle the agreement because of dissatisfaction with several provisions, passed it by a 489-vote margin, the union said. Slightly more than 17,000 skilled workers voted.

The skiller trades vote was 8,957 in favor and 8,468 opposed.

UAW President Leonard Woodcock and UAW Vice President Ken Bannon said that out of the 145,000 production workers, the vote to approve the agreement was 35,192 in favor and 22,026 opposed.

A MAJORITY OF each group had to ratify the agreement to gain final approval.

Woodcock and Bannon said that workers at bargaining units "that have reached agreement with Ford on local bargaining issues will be returning to work."

Four of 19 assembly plants would begin operations Wednesday and Thursday. The start-up at all 102 Ford facilities in 22 states will depend on local contract negotiations.

THE NOW-RATIFIED Ford contract becomes the basic industry agreement that will have to be matched by General Motors, Chrysler and American Motors.

The union did not indicate immediately which company would be its next "target."

The company and the union still have to work out local agreements at 29 of 99 bargaining units. That includes six of 19 assembly plants and a number of key manufacturing plants.

Without these local agreements, on such issues as washrooms, parking lots, cafeterias and production standards, to supplement the national agreement, Ford will not restart the assembly lines.

IN THE WAGE package, the workers won a 3 per cent annual increase, plus 20 cents an hour in the first year and continuation of the cost-of-living plan that generated $1.14 an hour for workers in the past three years.

To gain the approval of its skilled tradesmen, they were given an extra 20 to 25 cents an hour on top of the general wage package.

Other improvements included a one-time payment of up to $600 for the 38,000 retirees, a vision care and hearing aid plan and improved financing of the Supplemental Unemployment Benefits fund that gives laid off workers up to 95 per cent of their regular pay.

Tax brackets can confuse new investor

Speaking dollar-wise

by Robert S. Rosefsky

I've been studying an investment proposal from a major stock brokerage firm and found it to be misleading or at least confusing to a novice investor.

The proposal was comparing two plans: their own, which offered a tax-sheltered return of 7.5 per cent per year, and another which offered a taxable 10 per cent return per year. The 10 per cent deal was based on the assumption that the investor was in the 50 per cent tax bracket. The column of numbers purported to prove that the firm's tax-sheltered investment was a far better deal than the seemingly higher yielding one.

At issue was a one-time investment of $30,000. The proposal showed that the 10 per cent deal would return $3,000 per year to the investor, but half of that would go to Uncle Sam, thus leaving the investor with only $1,500 to go back to work for him. That's because of the 50 per cent tax bracket.

The 7.5 per cent tax-sheltered deal, on the other hand, would return $2,250 to the investor, all of which could go back to work for him. The compounding effect over the years made quite a difference in the proposal. Eventually some taxes would have to be paid in this form of annuity, but theoretically not until after retirment when the taxpayer would be in a lower tax bracket.

For reference, let's look at a segment of the federal tax rate schedule for married taxpayers filing joint returns.

Taxable Income Over	But not over	Pay		of the amount over
$36,000	$40,000	$10,340 plus	45%	$36,000
$40,000	$44,000	$12,140 plus	48%	$40,000
$44,000	$52,000	$14,060 plus	50%	$44,000

This means that a taxpayer whose taxable income (after deductions and exemptions) is $40,000 will pay $12,140 in federal income taxes. A taxable income of $41,000 will result in taxes of $12,620 ($12,140 plus 48 per cent of $1,000, or $480, equals $12,620). In the jargon of tax-land, this taxpayer is in the so-called 48 per cent bracket.

But as some simple arithmetic shows, he is not really paying 48 per cent of his taxable income in taxes. A taxable income of $40,000 means taxes of $12,140, or about 30 per cent of the taxable income. A tax of $14,060 represents about 32 per cent of the taxable income of $44,000, which is otherwise referred to as the 50 per cent bracket.

If an investor's taxable income goes from $44,000 to $47,000 as a result of a $3,000 return on a given investment, he will have to pay an extra $1,500 in taxes. But I submit that it's misleading to attribute all of that extra tax to the one investment. Considering all of his income as pooled into a single kitty, the actual percentage he'll pay in taxes on the total is only about 33 per cent.

'Drought' corn crop sets a record

The Agriculture Dept. Tuesday estimated the drought-ridden 1976 corn crop at a record 5.865 billion bushels, down 27 million bushels from last month's estimate of 5.892 billion bushels, but still 2 per cent above last year's record. A new estimate of soybean production put that crop at 1.250 billion bushels, down from 1.274 billion bushels last month and 18 per cent below last year. Wheat prospects indicated slightly less than last year's record crop. Corn prospects are a major key to future retail food prices because the grain is the chief raw material for farms producing meat, poultry and milk. The new forecast, based on Oct. 1 conditions, left the crop 98 million bushels above last year's 5.767 billion bushel record.

UAW, Deere talks resume

Contract talks between representatives of the United Auto Workers and Deere and Co. resumed in Moline Tuesday, the first time negotiators met since talks abruptly ended Oct. 2. Some 27,000 workers in six states walked out Oct. 1 during negotiations, which were to set a pattern for the farm implement industry.

New can recycling center

A new aluminum can recycling center will open today at Town and Country Distributors, 1325 Chase Ave., Elk Grove Village. Louis Weiss, service center manager for Reynolds Aluminum Recycling Center in Addison, said an open house will be held at 11 a.m. today at the facility. Town and Country Distributors, managed by Jack Rohner, is among eight Miller Brewing Co. beer distributors in the Chicago area, which sponsor similar centers. The Elk Grove Village outlet will be open from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Payment is made at the rate of 15 cents a pound for aluminum cans.

Gould record sales, earnings

Gould Inc., Rolling Meadows, Tuesday announced record sales and earnings for the first quarter ended Sept. 30, the first full quarter following Gould's acquisition of I-T-E Imperial Corp. Earnings per share rose 32 per cent to 79 cents compared to 60 cents a year earlier. Sales increased 16 per cent to $346.9 million compared to $298.7 million reported by Gould and I-T-E for their respective quarters a year earlier. Net earnings for the quarter reached $18.2 million compared to the earlier $11.3 million total.

Stocks continue slump; Dow drops another 8.47

NEW YORK (UPI) — The market's continuing slump, along with evidence the economic rebound has lost its momentum, drove prices lower in quiet trading Tuesday on the New York Stock Exchange.

The Dow Jones industrial average, which plummeted 11.56 points Monday, extended the loss by 8.47 points to 932.35, its lowest closing since Jan. 16 when the blue chip indicator finished the day at 929.63.

In the last 12 sessions, the closely followed Dow has plunged 76.94 points.

WALL STREET observers said investors were disheartened by the failure of the Dow to mount a drive above the 960 resistance zone, considered the lower end of an eight-month trading range until the index broke through the mark last Wednesday.

The latest rout was broad-based. The NYSE common stock index fell 0.45 to 53.87 and the price of a Big Board common share decreased by 28 cents. Standard & Poor's 500-stock index, which includes some over-the-counter issues, was off 0.83 to 100.81.

Declines held a better than two-to-one lead over advances, 986 to 398, among the 1,889 issues crossing the tape.

Volume amounted to 18,210,000 shares, compared with 14,620,000 shares exchanged Monday during the quiet Columbus Day session.

Prices closed lower in moderate trading on the American Stock Exchange, where the price of an average share fell 9 cents. The Amex market value index was down 0.76 at 97.96. Volume totaled 1,780,000 shares, against, 1,710,000 shares Monday.

Last April over 15,000 people attended the first antique show & sale at Arlington Park, one of the best attended antique shows in America. This is one of the most diversified antiques shows in the United States. You must see the tremendous amount and variety of antiques to believe it. Many of the nation's most distinguished dealers from over 30 states will be at this fabulous show. The dealers are selected for honesty, integrity, and large stocks of quality antiques. Many of these dealers do not exhibit at other shows in this area. The show floor is 800 feet long and 150 feet wide. This is the largest sale of antiques in America, valued at over $10 million.
This October antiques show & sale is bigger and better than the last show with many different exhibitors. There is no other show that can compare to this sensational event with something of interest to everyone. Please don't forget. Arlington Park is where the largest quality antiques show & sale in America is held and you are invited to attend.

"IT IS GOOD to look into your eyes," pronounced the chief. "Do they see what is before you? It is clean. It is beautiful." Not American Indian by birth, Niyoka changed her name (Gayle) and adopted the Indian way of life 10 years ago. She carried a sheaf of feathers and grain. The groom's father is a Yacqui Indian from Texas, his mother from the Zapoteca tribe of Mexico.

WHILE PERFORMING the ceremony Chief Little Eagle of the Wisconsin Dells beat his tom-tom and held wing feathers from an eagle, the closest animal to God. "We do not worship idols," he explained to the guests. "We pray to God above us. We are all God's children."

COUPLE'S WEDDING rings are set with native American stones. "No African diamonds," noted the officiating chief. The exchange of rings lent a modern day touch to the service.

Couple celebrate their marriage in American Indian tradition

by MARIANNE SCOTT

"Love is what it's all about," declared Roger Little Eagle, a Sioux war chief who performed the American Indian wedding ceremony uniting Niyoka Chupich and John G. Lopez.

It was a bit chilly for Indian summer, but the late afternoon sun shone warmly on friends and family the couple had asked to share their love and joy on this special day.

Setting for the service in "God's out-of-doors" last Saturday was the Deer Grove Forest Preserves, Palatine. Niyoka and John, who had invited 500 guests, led the procession down to a deep clearing where Chief Little Eagle waited at the edge of a small lake. The service began with the beating of his tom-tom and a brief chant.

THE CHIEF, WHO translated the service into English "for the benefit of the new immigrants," explained that the American Indian wedding does not include "obey," but stresses love, honor and integrity," which is what our country needs today."

Little Eagle said he found it gratifying that in this Bicentennial year, a young couple with their young one, reaching together in love, wished to give their hearts to the past. "Our nation is celebrating many things, but God gave us eyes to learn from the mistakes and hurts of the past."

"As we stand here on Mother Earth," said the chief, "there isn't much left of the preserves." He spoke of the 25,000 years when the land belonged to the Indians and "waters ran clear."

"NOW OUR WATERS are polluted," he accused. "Earth is our Mother; we are her guardians. We can borrow from Mother Earth but we can't keep taking and taking."

The service did not include the old Indian custom of an exchange of gifts (guns, handiwork, food) between the families of the couple. The chief explained that it wasn't the gifts but the treasure of love and closeness in giving that was important. "Things are nothing. Things are made, broken and gone. Maybe that's why we lost the country — things," he commented.

The service did include the traditional smoking of the Indian pipe (lit with a modern day match) which was passed to the bride and groom, their attendants and their families.

"Tobacco is one of God's greatest gifts — not to be abused as it is today. Tobacco is a sacred plant to be used only for good times and relaxation. The smoke goes to God and we ask His blessing," said the chief.

THE COUPLE, attendants and families also shared a bowl of "the blood of Mother Earth (water) without which there is no life."

After the exchange of rings, Chief Little Eagle recited the Indian version of the 23rd Psalm, invited the guests to partake of the "meat of God's out-of-doors" and draped a single blanket over the shoulders of the newlyweds. "Go in peace," he directed.

John and Niyoka, followed by their bridal party and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Chupich, former Arlington Heights and Palatine residents who now live in Barrington, and Mr. and Mrs. Juan Lopez of Round Lake, led the entourage of friends back up the long hill to where the reception was held.

MATRON OF HONOR for the service was Niyoka's sister, Mona Posa of Wheeling. She and bridesmaids Maureen Browning, Palatine, Carol Funk, Mount Prospect, and Carrie Fornelli, Crystal Lake, wore natural deerskin gowns and carried sheaves of grain and turkey feathers tied with deerskin. Mrs. Chupich wore a chamois gown.

Best man was Greg Zender, Lake Zurich, and the bridegroom's other attendants were Frank Poso, Jessie Arce, Wauconda, and Sam Fornelli.

Niyoka studied at Palatine and Wheeling High Schools and graduated from Lake Zurich High. Next week she will begin studying interior design at Harper College. John, a graduate of Lake Zurich High, is employed by FRC Tire in Aptakisic.

The couple expect to make their home in Lotus Woods, a community of log cabins in Spring Grove on the Wisconsin border.

LEADING THE BUFFET line, Niyoka and John are served a feast of wild turkey with wild onion sauce, venison stew, buffalo stew, wild rice, Indian fry bread and maize (corn) catered by Chef Louis, right, of The Bakery in Chicago. Instead of wedding cake guests were served an Indian pudding of apples, corn meal and maple syrup. There was no "fire water" but plenty of champagne, wine and beer. The couple's daughter, Akomachi, 2½, like her parents, wears white deerskin.

The doctor says

by Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D.

Best way to lose pounds is slowly

I am 55 years old, 5 feet 6 and weigh 158 pounds. My blood pressure is 150 over 100. Also my husband is dying of cancer. Now my doctor says it's my few pounds overweight that is causing my blood pressure to be high.

I went on a 1000-calorie diet to lose weight and did lose a few pounds. But, I have to work hard and couldn't make it so I increased the diet to 1200 calories a day. Naturally I can't lose any more.

My doctor wants me to go to a psychologist and be hypnotized to see why I like to eat. I tried to explain it wasn't the desire to eat alone, but I needed food to have strength to do my job.

He said I would have to be down to 90 pounds to be weak from no food. Ever since I had this round with him the other day I have been very upset and my heart just pounds. I feel I have enough with a sick husband without this from him.

Your doctor is right in trying to help you lose weight as the best way to get your blood pressure down. However, I question the way you are trying to do it.

You should be able to lose weight slowly if you are on a real 1200-calorie diet and are reasonably active. And it is true that you will have a loss of energy on a diet too low in calories, whether or not you have already lost all your excess fat deposits. Anyone who has been on a severely restricted diet knows this. Loss of energy is par for the course. I agree it is hard to work and stay on a 1000-calorie diet very long.

May I suggest that you really stick religiously to a 1200 calorie diet and try to include at least 30 minutes of walking a day. I'm sending you The Health Letter number 4-7, Weight Losing Diet constructed as a balanced 1200-calorie plan. Try it with some regular exercise and it will do the trick for you gradually.

Your pressure may be lower when you have less stress than you have now. Life situations are often a factor in increasing the blood pressure.

Others who want information on the Weight Losing Diet can send 50 cents for it. Send your request to Dr. Lamb in care of Paddock Publications, P. O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, N. Y., 10019.

I have a friend who is losing his hair. He has to keep combing his hair different to cover up the thin places. I feel he should see a doctor and that he probably lacks some vitamins in his meals. He says he feels good and that it will grow back again. I will appreciate any information on his.

If a person is eating a balanced diet containing sufficient vitamins, taking additional vitamins will not prevent loss of hair.

It is true that a diet deficient in protein can lead to hair loss. Most people, however, get plenty of protein and usually far more than needed.

Premature hair loss can be associated with poor nutrition, any illness, and even occurs as a complication of pregnancy about three months after the baby is born. In these situations the baldness or hair loss is temporary.

Hereditary factors are a major reason for early baldness. In any case I agree that anyone who has excessive loss of hair at a young age should see a doctor, preferably a dermatologist since they specialize in disorders of the skin.

It is normal to lose about 70 hairs each day. The life cycle of a hair is from two to six years and the hair follicle has a resting period without hair for about three months.

Zucchini fans should welcome bread recipe

At last a recipe for zucchini bread! It comes from Kathy Baldauf and is sure to be welcomed by all those so avid for zucchini in any form. It will be simpler to list the ingredients first, then provide the method. You'll need four cups coarsely shredded zucchini (do not shred in a blender), three cups all-purpose flour, two cups sugar, one and one-fourth cups vegetable oil, four beaten eggs, one tablespoon-plus-one teaspoon vanilla, one tablespoon ground cinnamon, one and one-half teaspoons salt, one and one-half teaspoons baking soda, one-half teaspoon baking powder and (optional) one cup chopped nuts. Heat oven to 325 degrees. Generously grease bottoms only of two 9 x 5 x 3-inch loaf pans. Blend all ingredients on low speed for one minute, scraping bowl constantly. Beat on medium speed for one minute. Pour into pans. Bake until wooden pick inserted in center comes out clean — 50 minutes to an hour. Cool 10 minutes, remove from pans, then let cool completely.

Dear Dorothy: Had an unusual accident, but it may happen to others. Sprayed one side of my face, including my eye, with yellow paint. I didn't expect much, but tried cold cream. To my surprise, it took off all the paint without a trace of irritation to the eye.
—Barbara Arnoid

Dear Dorothy: Discolored water came out of my steam iron and I immediately put the garment being ironed into a pan of cool water. Laundered, the stain came out. However, I have a shirt that this same thing happened to some time ago and the stain has never come out. Do you know what might be done with it? —Lane Britt

It's probably a rust stain. The simplest method is to use iron rust soap on it. It works on most materials, even carpeting. Just follow instructions.

Sue Kulinski – Brad Schwichtenberg

A Sept. 4 wedding resulted from a blind date arranged by friends of Sue Kuklinski, daughter of the Walter Kuklinskis, Mount Prospect, and Brad Schwichtenberg, Arlington Heights. Brad is the son of the Ray Schwichtenbergs, Golden Valley, Minn.

The 3 p.m. double ring ceremony took place in St. Emily Church in Mount Prospect.

Sue wore a lace-trimmed white peau de soie gown and fingertip veil edged in lace. She carried a bouquet of orchids, stephanotis and ivy.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Pam Kuklinski, the bride's sister-in-law from Streamwood. Bridesmaids included Mrs. Louise Bergman, Mundelein; Mrs. Debbie Schaldach, Milwaukee; Barb Minner, Chicago; and Mrs. Nanette Morris, Pekin, Ill.

THEY WORE matching gowns and capes of light blue knit jersey and held multicolored arrangements of daisies, roses and carnations. Flowers in their hair completed their ensembles.

The groom's 9-year-old cousin, Jodi Barry, St. Paul, Minn., was flower girl. She wore a dress similar to the bridesmaids' and carried a wicker basket filled with multicolored flowers.

Todd Kuklinski, Sue's 6-year-old nephew from Streamwood, and Chad Beumer, Brad's 3-year-old cousin from Northfield, were ring bearers.

Brad Morris, Pekin, Ill., was best man, with the groom's brother, Dean; Sue's brother, Wayne; Randy Cordova, Rockford; and Cary Horvath, Blue Island, as groomsmen.

Mr. and Mrs. Brad Schwichtenberg

A RECEPTION FOR 175 guests followed at the Mount Prospect VFW Hall. Sue and Brad then left for a week in Vail, Colo. Sue is a '71 graduate of Prospect High School, a '74 graduate of Harper College, and now a dental hygienist in Arlington Heights, where the couple now lives.

Brad, a '73 graduate of the University of Illinois, is division manager for Hussman Refrigeration in Lombard.

Weddings

Sharon Benson – Casey Nelson

The Presbyterian Church in Metlakatla, Alaska, was the setting of the Sept. 9 wedding of Sheryl Ray Benson, daughte of the John Bensons, Palatine, and Casey D. Nelson Jr., son of the Casey Nelsons of Metlakatla.

A reception for 350 followed the ceremony in the church fellowship hall.

Sheryl attended Fremd High School and Sheldon Jackson College in Sitka, Alaska. She is employed at the municipal offices in Metlakatla and Casey works at a lumber sawmill there.

The bride wore a Brussels lace gown and a lace cap and veil. She wore tiny white flowers in her hair and carried white roses and baby's breath.

HER MATRON of honor, Patricia Damus, Metlakatla, wore a powder blue gown and a wide brimmed hat. She carried a white bouquet. Bridesmaids Debbie Demmert, Ketchikan, Alaska, and Mercy Nelson, sister of the groom, were identically attired.

Flower girls were Tanya and Karen Eaton, Metlakatla, dressed in pink and blue flowered chiffon, and ring bearer was Clarence Nelson, British Columbia, Canada.

Best man was James Slaughter, and ushers were John Nelson, brother of the groom, and Larry Atkinson, all of Metlakatla.

Fall brings new hair fashions to Coiffure da Colino
Starting with the "Nova Cut," a short tailored look with the adaptability to enhance any facial structure. Then there's the "Tennille," the mid-length cut with extra volume to give your hair that free swinging feeling. "Olivia," is another mid-length look with the hair blown away from the face to produce a soft framed finish. The "Rona" has the look of today's blend of gentle contrast of tone-on-tone to create the beautiful multi-facets of lights reflecting thru your hair.

Lawyer not likely to change will

Women and children first

by Julie Martoccio

Dear Perplexed,

Your friend's employer promised to remember her in his will, but now that he's dead, she has not been notified about any provisions in it for her, especially a house that they had discussed, and she's wondering why.

No lawyer would be foolish enough to put his reputation, career or freedom (he could go to jail, you know) on the line for a client as you suggest the wife's lawyer might have done. A lawyer isn't likely to change the deceased's will because the testator's wife asked him to, nor fail to notify the beneficiaries — not for any amount of money.

Average citizens are not aware of all the intricacies of the law, and because a lawyer cannot explain them to a client (unless the latter is a lawyer), that client is suspicious and distrustful. Yet is a doctor expected to explain medical scientific procedure to a patient? Any specialized field of endeavor is beyond comprehension unless a person has the background to understand it. And sometimes the accusations against lawyers are absolutely ludicrous!

IN THIS INSTANCE, too, the wife would be jeopardizing her rights to the will if she did anything to alter it after her husband's death.

There are many reasons why promises should be in writing and your friend's dilemma proves the truth of that statement. I suspect that her employer either forgot or did not intend to keep his word.

But there is a simple procedure to find out whether that is true. Your friend may go to the probate court and look up the will. Wills are filed there and they are open to the public to read.

Dear L.Y.,

Shame on you for hating your fiance's cat! A dog may be a man's best friend, but that doesn't exclude cats. If you want to keep your dog after you're married, why can't he keep his cat? You don't expect me to agree with you when you say his affection for a cat is a reflection on his masculinity, do you? How would you feel if he harbored the feeling that keeping your dog and preferring it to a cat reflected on your lack of feminity — and worse?

IN ANCIENT TIMES, Egyptians worshiped cats, and they had a law against killing one, the punishment being death, even if the killing was accidental! In those days, the law was written by men and I wouldn't say Egyptian men were exactly sissies, would you?

So what if the cat reminds you of his ex-wife? It's not the cat's fault. Better get the cat and dog situation straightened out before you wed, or that's the way you'll be fighting afterward.

(Readers are invited to submit questions regarding problems of women and children. Names and facts that would identify the writer are withheld on request. Attorney Martoccio's law information is to inform and not advise. Write to her in care of Suburban Living, Paddock Publications, Box 280, Arlington Heights, Ill. 60006.)

Bazaars

wreaths, raffia dolls, advent calenders, hand-painted decorations and Christmas ornaments is scheduled for Saturday, Oct. 23, by Arlington Heights Area Alumnae of Kappa Kappa Gamma. The bazaar will be open from 10 a.m. to noon at Pioneer Park, 500 S. Fernandez.

Proceeds will go to Northwest Community Hospital. Last year's donation to the hospital from fund-raising activities was $1,000.

AAUW seeks used books

Books of all kinds — hard cover, paperback, fiction, non-fiction, texts, National Geographic, Reader's Digest, American Heritage, manuals, children's — plus records and sheet music are being collected by Arlington Heights Area Branch of the American Association of University Women for its annual used book sale at Randhurst Nov. 5, 6, 7.

All proceeds go to a national fellowships fund and a Harper scholarship awarded each year. This year's Harper recipient is Mrs. Louise Hacker who is enrolled in the nursing program.

The book depot at Recreation Park, Douglas and Miner Streets, Arlington Heights, is open every Tuesday and Thursday between 9:30 and 11:30 a.m. Books may be dropped off at the garage to the east of the park pool. Arrangements for pickup can be made with Sarah Born, 259-6378, or Jean Wittkoff, 255-3108.

Correction

In last Wednesday's Suburban Living story on Gilbert Ruiz, who developed a pelvic restrainer for infants at Holy Family Hospital, his wife was incorrectly identified as Judy. Her correct name is Nancy. The Herald apologizes to Mrs. Ruiz for this error.

Clubs ask craftsmen to rent fair booths

Three area groups are inviting craftsmen to show and sell their wares at craft fairs coming up in November. All request handmade items only.

Schaumburg Woman's Club will sponsor a "Crafty Capers Christmas Beautique" Nov. 13 at St. Peter Lutheran School. Display spaces at various prices are available. Information 529-1939 or 894-0594.

Hoffman Estates-Schaumburg Welcome Wagon Club is hosting a craft bazaar Nov. 20 at Vogelei Barn, Hoffman Estates. The entry fee is 10 per cent of gross sales. Information 882-7129.

Woodfield ORT is seeking participants for its second annual arts and crafts fair on Nov. 20. Information 884-1015 after 6 p.m.

Learn to Super Sew.

After 8 easy, inexpensive lessons you will have made at least:

One T-shirt
One pair of perfect-fit pants
Three fashion tops
One skirt
One sweater
One suit jacket
One swimsuit

Using Ann Person's unique sewing methods, you sew in a fraction of the time of ordinary sewing. You'll learn to fit and to design. And it's so simple. The classes are fun — like a special club meeting. You learn. But you love it.

You can make it. We will show you how.

Obituaries

Maria S. Ahbe

Services for Maria Schafer Ahbe, 80, of Des Plaines for 34 years, will be at 11 a.m. Friday in Oehler Funeral Home, Lee and Perry streets, Des Plaines. Burial will be in Ridgewood Cemetery, Des Plaines.

She died Tuesday at Lutheran General Hospital, Park Ridge. She was the owner of Maria Schafer's Music Store, Des Plaines, from 1921 until her retirement in 1968; and was a member of Des Plaines Women's Club.

Survivors include her husband, Hobard M., who was mayor of Des Plaines from 1937 to 1941; a son, Donald Ahbe; brothers, Mathew, Anthony and George Schafer; and sisters, Anna Donlea, Pauline Krause and Alvina Dawson.

Visitation will be from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9:30 p.m. Thursday in Oehler Funeral Home. Memorials may be made to First Church of Christ Scientist, Des Plaines.

Deaths elsewhere

ALBERT H. AHRENS, 78, of Woodstock, a former resident of Des Plaines and McHenry, died Tuesday in Holy Family Hospital, Des Plaines. He was a retired farmer. He is survived by a daughter, Marion Lindemann of Des Plaines; sons, Richard of Palatine and Albert Ahrens; seven grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; brothers, John, Edward and George Ahrens; and sister, Anna Babock of Des Plaines.

Services will be at 11 a.m. Thursday in Oehler Funeral Home, Lee and Perry streets, Des Plaines, with burial in Memory Gardens Cemetery, Arlington Heights. Visitation will be from 2 to 9:30 p.m. Wednesday in Oehler Funeral Home.

LINDA M. CAIRO, 29, of Crystal Lake, was dead on arrival Monday at McHenry Hospital, McHenry, apparently from injuries sustained after being struck by a car in front of her home. She is survived by her husband, Robert; brothers, Elmer Barnes of Palatine, Donald and Robert Barnes, both of Schaumburg; and parents, Elmer and Mildred Barnes.

Services will be at 10 a.m. Thursday in St. Marcelline Church, 820 S. Spriningsguth Rd., Schaumburg, with burial in St. Joseph Cemetery, River Grove. Visitation will be from 2 to 9:30 p.m. today in Ahlgrim and Sons Funeral Home, 330 W. Golf Rd., Schaumburg. Family requests masses appreciated.

ARTHUR R. WOLF, 32, of Strongsville, Ohio, a former resident of Palatine, was dead on arrival Friday at Southwest General Hospital, Middleburg Heights, Ohio, apparently from injuries sustained in a car-train accident in Berea, Ohio. A 1971 graduate of Michigan State University, he was employed as a chemist for Foseco Mimsep Co., Cleveland, Ohio.

Survivors include his parents, Theobald and Alice Wolf of St. Simons Island, Ga., formerly of Palatine; brothers, David and James Wolf; and grandmother, Mercy Iddings.

A memorial service was Monday in the Jardine Funeral Home, Strongsville, Ohio. There will be a second memorial service at a later date in St. Simons Island, Ga.

Tar/Taste Theory Exploded.

Taste-science breakthrough gives low tar MERIT the flavor of cigarettes having 60% more tar.

By locating certain flavor-rich ingredients in cigarette smoke, ingredients that deliver taste way out of proportion to tar, researchers at Philip Morris have disproven the theory that cigarette flavor depends on the amount of tar that goes with it.

They've discovered how to pack flavor—unprecedented flavor—into a cigarette that delivers one of the lowest tar levels in smoking today.

The discovery is called 'Enriched Flavor.' It's extra flavor, natural flavor, and only MERIT has it.

9 mg. "tar," 0.7 mg. nicotine av. per cigarette by FTC Method.

Warning: The Surgeon General Has Determined That Cigarette Smoking Is Dangerous to Your Health.

MERIT and MERIT MENTHOL

Tests Verify Taste

In taste tests involving thousands of cigarette smokers like yourself, MERIT was reported to deliver as much—or more—taste than current low tar leaders.

What's really startling is that these brands have up to 60% more tar than MERIT.

You've been smoking "low tar, good taste" claims long enough.

Now smoke the cigarette.

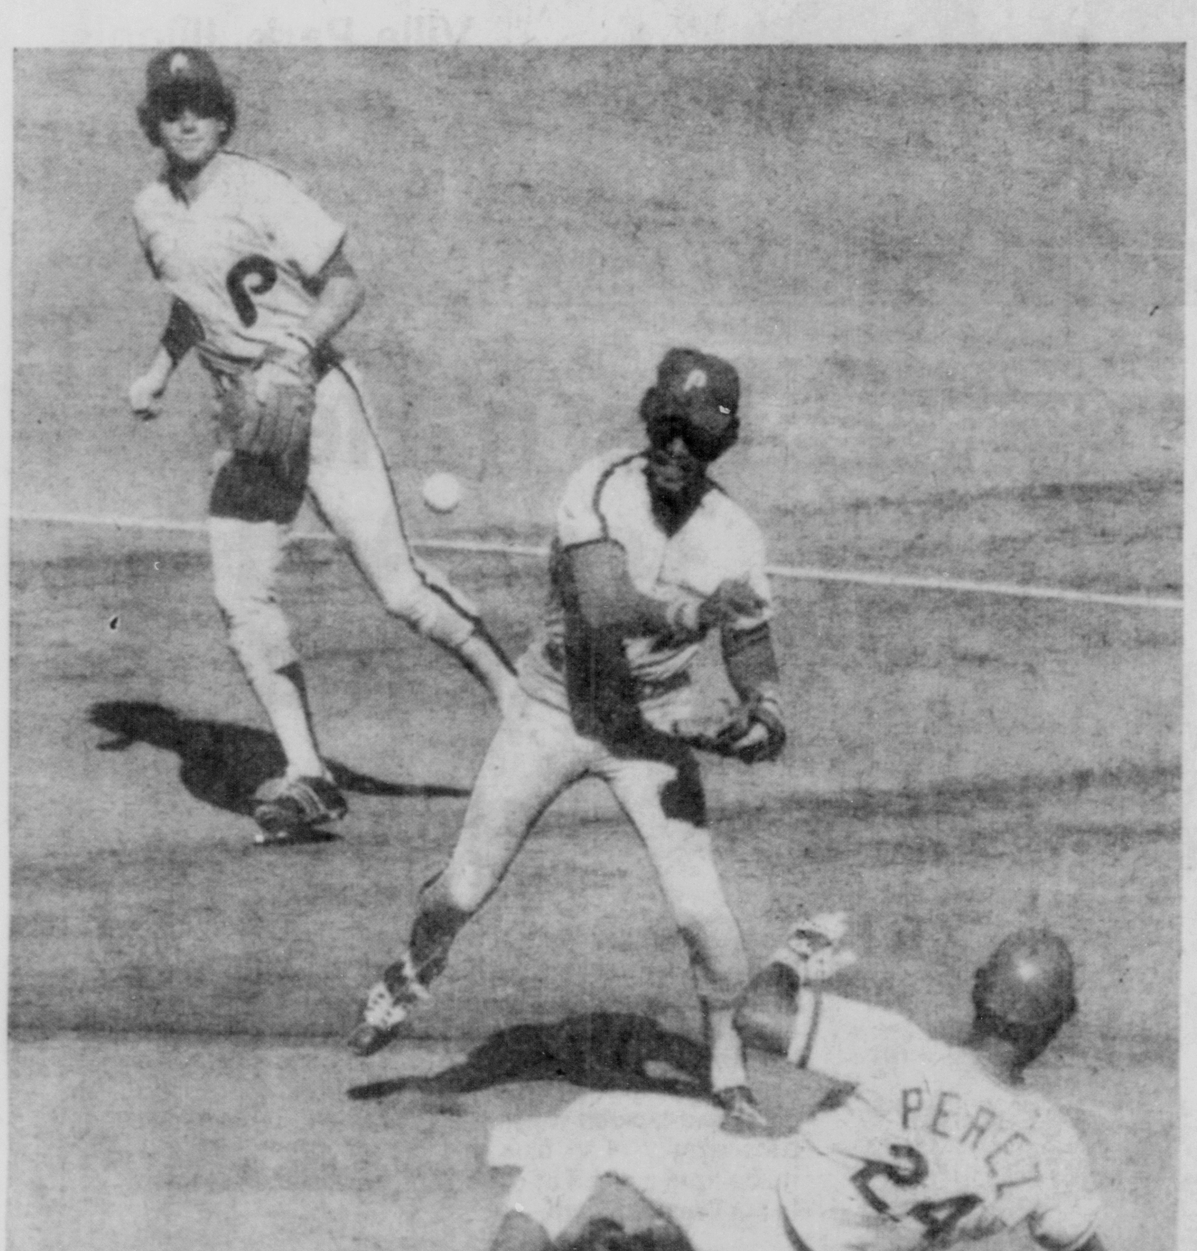

MERIT. Incredible smoking satisfaction at only 9 mg. tar.

Awesome Reds take pennant with style

CINCINNATI'S TONY Perez is out at second base after Johnny Bench hit to Philadelphia's Larry Bowa in playoff action Tuesday. Bowa flipped to second baseman Dave Cash for the force at second and Bench was doubled up at first. The Reds won, 7-6, to march into the World Series.

CINCINNATI (UPI) — "Oh, can they play," Cincinnati manager Sparky Anderson huffed and puffed as he scampered into the Reds' locker room. "Oh, can they play."

Anderson was almost in a daze immediately after his ball club had rallied from a 6-4 deficit in the bottom of the ninth inning Tuesday to whip Philadelphia 7-6 for a three-game sweep of the National League playoffs.

Not only was Anderson dazzled by the comeback — "Oh, can they play," he kept repeating — but the white-haired skipper admitted he didn't expect his team to win the game.

"Let's be honest," he said. "We don't live in a dream world. I'm surprised we tied it. But when it got 6-6, I knew this thing was over."

It got to be 6-6 thanks to back-to-back homers by George Foster and Johnny Bench in the ninth inning.

"All I did was go up to get a hit," said Foster, who homered to left. "But I was really aggressive at the plate, and when I hit it, I knew it was gone. I didn't know how far it was goingg, but I knew it was gone."

Bench followed with another shot over the left field wall, and it reminded the slugging catcher of 1972 when he hit a dramatic ninth-inning homer in the fifth game of the playoffs to pave the way for a comeback win over Pittsburgh.

"In '72, I don't think I realized how big that homer was for quite awhile," said Bench, clutching a bottle of champagne in the jubilant Reds' locker room. "But I knew right away what this one meant.

"When George went up to bat in the ninth I patted him on the rump and said, 'Let's go.' He did, and then I knew I was on the block. I just wanted to do something awfully bad. Let me tell you, it's some kind of thrill.

After the solo homers by Foster and Bench had tied it, Ken Griffey delivered the winning RBI on a high-chopping infield hit that Phils' first baseman Bobby Tolan couldn't handle.

"I just wanted to make contact," said Griffey. "I saw he bobbled it and I made it to first base the fastest I've ever made it."

Anderson refused to say if he would rather play Kansas City or the New York Yankees in the World Series, opening here Saturday, but he issued a warning to both clubs.

"Either the Yankees or Kansas City could beat us, but if they do, they will ache so much when they do that they won't feel relaxed," said the man who led the Reds to a World Series win over the Boston Red Sox just a year ago.

Ron Reed sat slumped next to a soft drink machine in the losing Phillies dressing room, his head buried in his lap. If there were tears in his eyes, he wasn't going to show them.

Reed gave up two homers — back-to-back by Foster and Bench — and that allowed the Reds to tie the score in the ninth inning before going on to beat the Phillies five batters later.

"There is no way you can blame anybody on this club for that loss but me," said the distraught Phillies reliever, his eyes misty and his voice quivering. "It was as plain and simple as that. I let Foster get to me because I hung the pitch and an eight-year veteran doesn't do that. Bench just hit a high fastball."

Tommy Underwood, at 22, eleven years younger than Reed, was more composed even though it was his walk to Geronimo which set up the eventual winning run.

"There's no excuse for not throwing strikes," said Underwood. "I tried to aim the ball. I just didn't do the job."

Meanwhile, Reed sat quietly by his locker room cubicle while reporters drifted by and asked him to rehash those disastrous two pitches. Somebody asked him what he would be thinking about all winter long.

"I think," said Reed, "it's safe to say I'll be thinking about a hanging slider."

Corsair golfers capture ESC conference meet again

A one-stroke margin allowed Carmel to retain their conference golf crown Tuesday, the Corsairs just barely edging hosting St. Viator for top team honors at the Suburban Catholic East tourney.

Carmel slipped past the Lions 315-316 while four other schools trailed at a distance. A Corsair golfer also came up with individual honors at the Rob Roy layout.

Leading the way for Viator was Jack Patterson. His 78 tied for third on the medalist list. Tim Beatty and Bob Cantieri turned in 79s, Mark Brehm carded an 80, Chuck Lynch posted an 83 and Bill Hickey and Paul Adams finished up at 86 and 85 respectively.

Marist finished third in the team standings with a 329 followed by Notre Dame (331), St. Patrick (350) and St. Joseph (422).

Coach Ken Peck's frosh-soph Lion unit turned the tables on Carmel but Notre Dame turned out to be the team to watch. The Dons won the sophomore meet with a 325 while Viator had a 335, Carmel a 335 and St. Pats and Marist notched 367s.

Bill Donnelley paced the Lion cause with an 82.

Ellis survives rocky 1st inning

Yanks move closer to pennant

NEW YORK (UPI) — The New York Yankees of old would have been proud of the current New York Yankees Tuesday night when they brought post-season baseball back to "The Home of Champions" for the first time since 1964.

Staging a flash rally as in "the old days," theYankees scored three runs in the sixth inning to beat the Kansas City Royals 5-3 and take a 2-1 lead in the American League playoffs. They need one victory in the two remaining scheduled games in New York to win their first pennant since 1964.

Graig Nettles' tie-breaking single and a run-scoring double by Elliott Maddox were the big blows of the sixth inning.

Dock Ellis, who received credit for the victory with ninth-inning relief help from Sparky Lyle, didn't feel all that elated over the triumph, however.

"On a 10-point scale, I rate my performance four," he said. "I haven't pitched in a week-and-a-half and I wasn't that sharp.

"They just kept hitting the ball at people," he said. "And that's why we won."

A surprise 17-game winner during the regular season after being acquired in a winter trade from the Pittsburgh Pirates, Ellis was tagged for three runs in the first inning but settled down and pitched a superb six-hitter for eight innings. He allowed only three hits after the first inning and faced only 22 batters from the second through the eighth innings before being relieved at the start of the ninth by Lyle.

A crowd of 56,808, which included Secretary of State Henry Kissinger, saw the Yankees cut the Royals' early lead to 3-2 with two out in the fourth inning when Lou Piniella doubled and Chris Chambliss homered into the right field bleachers. Both blows came off Andy Hassler who nevertheless carried a 3-2 lead into the Yankees' sixth.

Then the Yankees staged their flash rally just as they did so often in the days of Ruth, Gehrig, DiMaggio, Mantle and all the rest when Yankee Stadium was the Home of Champions.

Roy White walked and Thurman Munson doubled to start the sixth and reliever Marty Pattin walked pinch-hitter Carlos May, filling the bases. Chambliss hit into a force play off Tom Hall, enabling White to score the Yankees' third run, and Nettles followed with a clean single to center field to put the Yankees ahead 4-3. Maddox followed with his double to make the score 5-3.

Lyle gave the Yankees' fans some anxious moments when he walked George Brett to open the ninth but he retired John Mayberry and Hal McRae on fly balls and got pinch-hitter Dave Nelson to hit into a game-ending force out. Lyle received credit for a save with Ellis picking up the second playoff victory of his career.

The Royals started out in the first inning like they were going to chase Ellis back to Pittsburgh.

Jim Wohlford walked and stole second base to start the inning. Al Cowens struck out but Brett singled home Wohlford and went to third on Mayberry's single to left. Brett scored the second run on McRae's sacrifice fly and Tom Poquette doubled past first base to make the score 3-0.

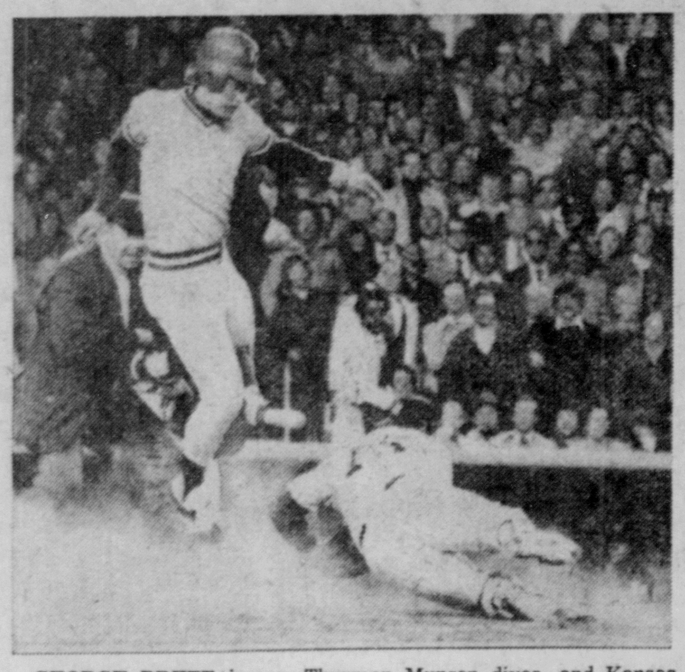

Hassler allowed a leadoff single to Mickey Rivers and had a one-hitter until Piniella doubled with one out in the fourth.

Bugner KOs Dunn

LONDON — Joe Bugner won the British, European and Commonwealth heavyweight boxing titles Tuesday when he knocked out defending champion Richard Dunn at 2:14 of the first round.

Bugner took the fight to Dunn and immediately floored the champion with a right hand in the opening seconds. Dunn rose to his feet, but came under a tremendous barrage of punches and went down again for a brief count.

Bugner tore into the attack. Dunn tried to tie him up but Bugner was getting through. Dunn's face was a vivid red as Bugner rained home punches.

Then Dunn went down again for the full count.

Dunn suddenly hoisted himself up as referee Harry Gibbs spread his arms. He even looked surprised that the count had finished. He bumped into Gibbs before crashing to the canvas again.

Bugner, who previously held the championships, jumped from his stool like a man possessed at the bell and before the fight was barely 10 seconds old, Dunn was dumped on the seat of his pants in his own corner by a vicious right uppercut for a count of eight.

Wolverines near unanimous choice

NEW YORK — The University of Michigan, displaying the most potent offense in the nation, stands out as a near unanimous choice Tuesday for the No. 1 spot in the weekly football ratings of United Press International.

The Wolverines, who have outscored their opponents 234-51 in running up a 5-0 record, received 41 of 42 first-place ballots from the UPI Board of Coaches. The only dissenter voted them second, giving Michigan 419 of a possible 420 points.

Pittsburgh, also boasting a 5-0 record, received the other first place nomination and was second in the voting with 346 points. However, the Panthers already have lost two starting quarterbacks this season, first Robert Haygood and most recently Matt Cavanaugh last Saturday against Louisville.

The best advance of the week wa made by Texas Tech, which vaulted eight notches to No. 10 after a 27-16 upset of Texas A&M last Saturday. It was the third victory for the unbeaten Red Raiders.

Also moving into the top 10 was Ohio State following a one-week absence. The Buckeyes, with a 3-1-1 record, are ninth.

Brock will be player-coach in '77

ST. LOUIS — In his first act as new manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, Vern Rapp said Tuesday that Lou Brock has agreed to act as player-coach next season.

"He will be utilized in the outfield department and also the running department," Rapp said.

The announcement came at a news conference called to introduce Rapp. August A. Busch Jr., president of the Cardinals and board chairman of Anheuser-Busch brewery, and General Manager Bing Devine attended the meeting.

Rapp, 48, also said Mo Mozzali, a longtime scout in the Cardinal organization, will serve as batting coach.

Rapp, a minor-league manager since 1955, acknowledged his limited experience in the National League and said Brock would help him get acquainted with the various players.

"I know that I'm coming into a situation where I'm not acquainted with the league and Lou's knowledge is going to be very important," said Rapp, who added that the coaching job would not interfere with Brock's playing time.

Rolling Meadows student wins fifth grid contest

Joe Paolella, of 1047 S. Walnut in Arlington Heights, fought off 906 entrants to take the fifth week of Paddock Publication's Pick the Winners contest.

Paolella, a 15-year-old student at Rolling Meadows High School, missed only two games on the card and hit the tiebreaker on the head to edge out seven other contestants who also missed just two games.

Paolella won a stadium blanket for his effort and became eligible for the grand prize of a trip to the Rose Bowl on New Year's Day.

Joe Paolella

Mustang booters beat Arlington

Ted Theofanous of Rolling Meadows booted home a penalty kick at 2:19 in the second overtime to give his Mustang soccer team a 2-1 upset victory over Arlington in Mid-Suburban League action at Rolling Meadows Tuesday.

In other MSL conference action Tuesday night, Fremd continued its winning ways by blanking Buffalo Grove 2-0 and Elk Grove knocked off Hoffman Estates by a 3-2 score.

In the Central Suburban League, Maine West rebounded from last week's tough loss to Maine East by nipping Niles West 3-2.

And in a classic upset in nonconference play, Prospect handed Barrington a 2-1 loss.

Rolling Meadows won behind senior goalie Mike Zimmerman, who was tending the nets for the first time in a varsity game. Zimmerman stopped 15 shots, allowing only a third-period tally by Paul Wei.

Meadows' Taras Haliw tied the score with a goal at 16:37 of the fourth period before Theofanous won the contest by slamming in his penalty kick.

The Mustangs' record is now 3-6.

Fremd's victory, their eighth without a loss (they have one tie), was powered by a pair of first-half goals by Rick Garcia and Tom Cornwell.

Garcia's goal was assisted by Jerry Norys and Cornwell's tally was assisted by Bob Bischoff.

Viking goalie Eric Hartman earned the shutout.

The Buffalo Grove frosh-soph team handed Fremd its first lower-level loss, 1-0.

Elk Grove improved its MSL record to 4-1-1 with its 3-1 victory over Hoffman. Mark Heffley opened the scoring for the Grens with an unassisted corner kick and Tony Kees and Mike Jablonski added goals. Kees' score was assisted by Dan Boutellier and Kees assisted on Jablonski's marker.

Elk Grove's goalie, Ron Sanders, stopped 12 Hoffman shots, but he couldn't stop sophomore Fran Mueller from kicking a pair of Hawk goals.

John Cambora and Don Gay shared the goal tending duties for Hoffman Estates.

Prospect's impressive victory over tough Barrington was the Knights' third win in a row and gives them a 4-4-1 record for the season. Prospect goalie Norm Raddatz limited the Broncos to just one goal while turning aside 10 shots.

Two third-period goals — By Ed Lindemann and Santiago Bustamonte — gave Prospect the victory. Bustamonte's score came on a penalty shot.

Maine West's CSL South record moved to 3-1 (they are 7-3 over-all) and the Warriors moved into second place in the division with a come-from-behind victory over Niles West.

After the Indians took a 2-0 first-quarter lead, Maine West stormed back for a tie on goals by Felix Garoz in the second period and John Bachmeier in the third.

The winning goal came in the fourth quarter and was scored by Warrior Walt Wrona.

Tennis leaders warm to MSL meet

The Arlington Cardinals and Prospect Knights warmed up for the Mid-Suburban League tennis meet this weekend with convincing dual meet victories.

Arlington, unbeaten in dual meets and the defending league champions, shut out Conant 7-0 while Prospect, 11-1 in the MSL, topped Fremd 5-1.

Arlington lost only five games to the Cougars as they moved their final record to a glittering 12-0.

The Cardinals got 6-0, 6-0 wins from singles players Janet Haberkorn and Carrie Sears and doubles teams Laura Sanders and Kim Broderick, Lisa Pugsley and Beth Klawitter and Kathi Golden and Beth DiCola.

Prospect's Knights won their abbreviated decision over Fremd as singles players Jean Rezny and Julie Shwem scored three set victories.

Fremd's No. 3 doubles team of Nancy Bowles and Pam Moyer took the Vikings' only point with a 6-3, 6-3 win.

Buffalo Grove, another team who will have something to say about the championship this week, won an abbreviated 6-0 verdict over Palatine.

The Bison, led by singles players Lisa Smart and Julia Harvey and No. 4 doubles players Debby Dumelle and Susan Lally, won all their matches in straight sets.

Forest View and Rolling Meadows fought a close match before the Falcons emerged with a 4-3 win.

Barb Gallo and Kris Krueger took singles points for the Mustangs, Gallo winning her No. 1 match 6-0, 6-0.

But Forest View took three doubles points. Jenny Kim and Nancy Lachus leading the way at No. 4 doubles, to take the match.

Hersey got singles points from Debby Sampson and Lisa Buck at No. 1 and No. 3 singles as the Huskies bumped off Wheeling's Wildcats, 5-1.

Wheeling's only point came from Laura Bencko and Pam Smith at No. 3 doubles.

Elk Grove lost two singles points to Hoffman's Kate Swaya and Karen O'Malley but held on to win the match 5-2.

The Grens took all four doubles points in straight sets and Gayle Leksander won a singles point to give Elk Grove the edge.

Dog care clinic opens Saturday

The seventh annual University of Illinois Symposium on Dog Care and Health will be held Saturday, at the Illini Union on the University of Illinois campus in Urbana. Featuring an excellent panel of speakers, the symposium is co-sponsored by the University of Illinois College of Veterinary Medicine and the Illinois Dog Clubs and Breeders Assn.

Three speakers will discuss subjects covering canine pediatrics, care of the aged dog, estrous control and skin diseases. The noon luncheon speaker will be Michael Ushijima, attorney and president of the IDCBA.

Included in the program are tours of both the small and large animal clinics.

Registration is from 8 to 8:30 a.m., with the program starting at 8:30. The registration fee for the symposium is $17, which includes a noon luncheon. For more information, contact Dr. Jack L. Tuttle, New Large Animal Clinic, University of Illinois, Urbana.

Obedience trial weekend —

Glenbard All Breed Obedience Club, Inc. holds its annual obedience trial Sunday, in the main exhibition building, DuPage County Fairgrounds, Manchester and County Farm roads, Wheaton.

They have a record entry of 419 dogs with 464 class entries. The entry was so large that they were looking for additional judges.

Here's your chance to attend an obedience trial and learn what it is all about. A $1 donation gets the adults in and children under 12 are admitted free when accompanied by parents. Judging will start at 9 a.m.

Collie match —

Lake County Fairgrounds, Rtes. 45 and 120, Grayslake holds the Central States Collie Club match, Sunday, Oct. 24.

The match will be open to any A.K.C. registered or elibible for registration collie two months of age or older. The gates open at 8 a.m. with entries taken until 9. Judging will start at 10 a.m. and will be done by Mrs. Sue Barlow, Wingate Collies, from Indianapolis.

There will be plenty of free parking, so if you want a chance to see this great breed at a specialty event here is your chance.

Barks & Bays —

And speaking about Collies, remember in the last column the question was asked where the name "Collie" originated.

People really wondered about that one. Letters were received, people who saw your editor asked about it and in general it created a lot of interest.

However, only one person had the right answer and that was in a letter received from Kathleen Lyons of Des Plaines. The answer: "Collie" comes from the word "coalie" used by Scots and Englishmen to describe the breed years ago. Early specimens of the breed, especially the smooth variety, had a great deal of black in their coats.

Soccer club hosts special clinic tonight

The Palatine Celtic Soccer Club will sponsor a Referees Clinic tonight at 7:00 p.m. at Maple Park Field House on the corner of Anderson and Winston drives.

The clinic will be run by Jim Rennie, Director of Referees, and is open to all referees, coaches and parents.

The Club hopes that many parents will attend so as to increase their knowledge of the laws of soccer and their enjoyment of the game in which their children are involved.

Mason Shoes tops women's leader

Lu Schoenberger registered the top score of the season for the Paddock Women's Classic Traveling League when she blasted a booming 244 game enroute to a 623 series at Brunswick Northwest Bowl.

Lu's series, the high for the evening, helped Striking Lanes grab five of seven points from Ziebart Rustproofing of Des Plaines.

Supporting Schoenberger for Striking were Eunice Whitmore's 543, Bette Brelle's 509 and Judy Brumond's 503. Ziebard countered with a balanced effort headed by Susie Capizano's 542 and Carol Anderson's 521.

League-leading Petterson Safety Service was trimmed 4-3 by Mason Shoes, but still maintained a four-point advantage over runnerup Ziebart.

Mason turned the tables behind consistent scoring spearheaded by Peggy Wales' 504 and Irm Faust's all-spare 183 game. Petterson captured the opening game and series as Bobbie Kostelny rolled 528-205 and Bonnie Kuhn 512.

Ten Pin Bowl rallied from a first-game defeat to claim a 5-2 triumph over Thunderbird Country Club as Joan Plywack rifled 532. Thunderbird relied on identical 502's by Sally Jo Gerard and Elaine Nirva.

L-Tran Engineering jumped into third place in the standings by virtue of sweeping Tower Cleaners, 7-0. Lorrie Nichols was the force behind L-Trans' success as she hit 571-212 while teammate Isobel Kosi chipped in with 518.

STANDINGS

1. Peterson Sofety Service 34, 2. Ziebard of Des Plaines 30, 3. L-Tran Engineering 26, 4. Striking Lanes 25, 5. Thunderbird Country Club 19, 6. Ten Pin Bowl 17, 7. Mason Shoes 13, 8. Tower Cleaners 4.

Formco rolls into title scramble

by DON CHRISTENSEN

In Saturday's action at Sims Bowl in Des Plaines, Formco Metal Projects moved back into contention in the Paddock Classic Traveling League.

Greg Fugiel decided to take matters in his own hands by leading his Formco team, Oct. 2 with 690 and last Saturday with a 203-213-231 for 647. Barry Stjernberg helped Formco move into second place with his 618, dropping Uncle Andy's into third place.

Meanwhile, Beverly Lanes continued its hot pace by taking two of three games from Weber Kettles plus nine of the 15 individual points to keep a 10½-point lead in the fast-moving league.

Bob Green, who commutes from Kansas City, Mo. each weekend, led Beverly Lanes with 235-218 for 647 to tie the evening's high series. Joe Simonis paced Weber Kettles with 594.

In the match between Dick McFeely Pontiac and Grand Spaulding Dodge, it turned out to be a dead heat with each team registering 12½ points each. Rey Ischer showed the way for Grand Spaulding Dodge with 595 and Ray Lofthouse was on Rey's heals with 594 for Dick McFeely.

John Kartheiser's 254, high game of the night, and fine total of 641, paced Oost Produce over Des Plaines Ace Hardware, who won the first game for three points plus four individual points.

After the first game, however, it was all Oost as they won 14½ of the remaining 17 points.

This week the league travels to Striker Lanes, Buffalo Grove with the following matchups: Formco Metal Products vs. Grand Spaulding Dodge, Dick McFeely Pontiac vs. Uncle Andy's Cow Palace, Oost Produce vs. Beverly Lanes, and Weber-Bar-B-Que Kettles vs. Des Plaines Ace Hardware.

There has been a schedule change: The original position night schedules for Oct. 23 at Des Plaines has been moved to Sims Bowl, while Des Plaines Lanes takes Dec. 11 at Sims Bowl.

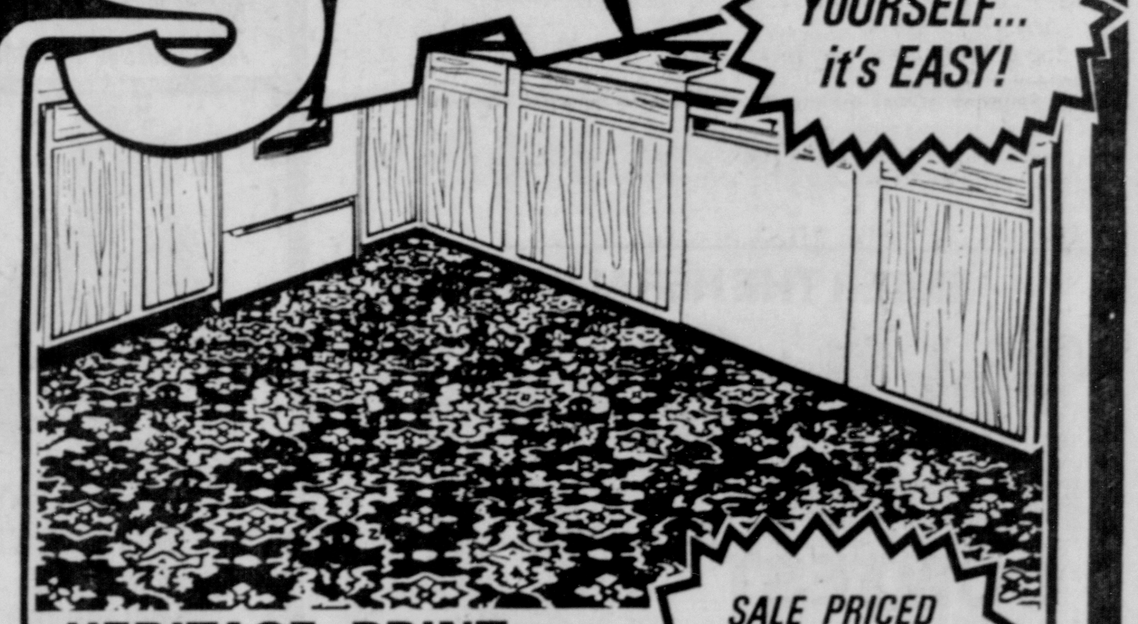

Standings

Beverly Lanes, 98.5, Formco Metal Products 88, Uncle Andy's 85.5, Weber Kettles, 77.5, Grand Spaulding Dodge 75, Oost Produce 70, Dick McFeely Pontiac 55, Des Plaines Ace Hardward 50.5.

Mount Prospect

MOUNT PROSPECT MIDGET FOOTBALL SENIORS

Cardinals 6, Lions 0

Cardinal back Chuck Jennings broke open a tough defensive battle with a TD plunge. Exceptional offensive blocking and defensive tackling were supplied by Grear, DiVito and Borneman. The Lion offense was sparked by Sheridan, Lowery, John Mooney, Tchon, Esquivel and McGuire. Ang Damiano led the defense with 10 tackles and was aided by M. Johnson and John Koepke with fumble recoveries, a Mike Mooney interception and Jeff Koepke blocked punt.

Giants 26, Packers 0

Toepper, Neilsen, Nickolich and McLeod scored TD's and Payne two extra points as the Giants rolled to an impressive win. Good blocking was by Tuefel, Newsome, Latham, Rodriquez, Staniak, Littleton, Gabriel and Wojiechowski. Keeping the Pack from paydirt were Benjamin, Phillips, Prendergast, Gorgol, Blondell, Arnold, Hoogkirk, Paisley and Quirk. The Packers relied on the play of Mike Matella and Bob Fisher.

JUNIORS

Eagles 6, Oilers 0

Hard-hitting defense on both sides as the Eagles Burke, Attenbern, Predovich and Kay stopped the Oilers on drives inside the 10 twice. In the second half the Eagles marched 47 yards on the running of Wolfe, O'Brill, and Grasse. Quarterback Mike Donner behind the blocks of Scone, Burke and Hefertepe plunged three yards for the winning score.

Falcons 6, Rams 0

The Falcons had good up-front drive by Mangiamele, Russell, Paraguiski and Hunyady. Excellent quarterbacking by Tom Carlson sprung Jim Freko loose for the TD. The tough defense was led by Cain and Girrard. Paisley and Mangiamele had fumble recoveries and Freko an interception. Hard blocking by Mead, Martinelli, Koustardatos, Krause, Brand and the running of Doug Zaucha, Zender, Greg and Grant Fuchs led the Ram offense. Defensive hitting was by Walsh, Kelliher, Gradei, Nickle and Anderson.

Chiefs 14, 49'ers 0

After Nicholson scored on a one yard plunge he unloaded a 41 yard bomb to Cilenti as the Chiefs notched an' impressive win. Extra points were scored by O'Connor. The Chiefs relied on the second half defense of Boggs, Schultz, Carlson, Johnson and Vandeven to secure the victory.

Cowboys 13, Redskins 7

Quarterback Jim Folky plunged three yards for the TD and Steve Rudnick galloped 25 yards for a TD as the Cowboys came from behind to win. Interceptions by Tom Beavers and Allen helped stop the Skin attacks, while outstanding defensive tackling was by John Sersen, Reinhart and Jeff Klopp. The Redskins took the lead as Bill Retzke went off tackle on a dazzling 50 yard TD run. Tom Gunderson nabbed the extra point. The defensive was led by a Mathias fumble recovery and the charges of Gordon Hiller, Simons, Rohan and Caughlin.

Raiders 13, Steelers 6

First half TD runs of 15 and 16 yards by Zavodny paced the Raiders to victory. Ziparro, Giersch and Sctaurro aided the strong offensive attack. The spirited defense of Ryan, Kowalczyk, Anderskow, Kuehl and Andros held the Steelers. Steeler quarterback Dom Falcone rolled out for a 25 yard TD run in the 4th quarter as the Steelers closed the gap on defensive gems by Ken Peterson's blocked punt and fumble recovery, two fumble recoveries by Jeff Bak and Ed Wallace who led the team in tackling.

Spartans 6, Badgers 2

Bert Knuth broke open a scoreless duel with a 3rd quarter TD run behind the strong blocking of Benson, Scopa, Burke and Keith Boron. Fine play was also added by Knaus, Maher, Tsolinas, Nickols and Predovich. A strong Badger running attack by Jeff Francis with 126 yards rushing, Scully, Boba, Brennan and Phil Cichon and the strong quarterbacking of Scott Fredo and Greg Smith were not enough as the Badgers were stopped three times with a strong Spartan defense on key drives to the goal line. Doug Barker with a fine reception also led the defense with Dan Cantieri, Matt Anderson and Doug Pfaff.

Illini 15, Tigers 0

Illini quarterback Mike O'Brien scored on a four yard run and added the extra point, while Phil Miller caught a Tiger for a safety. Rich Schutz twisted and turned on a 61 yard TD scamper to seal the big win. A strong defense led by Watanabe, Borgerson, Savage, Bischef, Webb and Fletcher. Strong play was added by Mathias, Jeska, Gutzmer, Schmidt, Yario, Hooper, Fack, Friedricks and Werhane.

Hawkeyes 6, Wolverines 0

In the big upset win Hawkeye fullback Tim Prendergast scored on a two yard run behind the blocking of Filsinger, Ford, Collins, Antonson and Caldorone. The defense was brilliant as Collodi, Weland, Kmeic, Lamphier, Nabors, Freeze, Fitche, Chronos and Wallace made strong tackles. The Wolves were led by Kyle Weller, along with Jim Bouc and Brad Davis who recovered fumbles.

Boilermakers 12, Gophers 0

Mike Eld and Brian Court played well on offense as Ken Gavre and John Miorn added 2nd half TD's for the unbeaten Boilers. Jack Brucamelli played tough defense while Mark Maleski and Pat Mooney intercepted passes with fumble recoveries by Tom Best and John Raftery. A fumble recovery by Gary Krawchuk and solid defense by Nemec, Neal, Rubel, Huska and Mangiamele kept the Gophers within striking distance.

Bruins 20, Hoosiers 0

Bruin back Roger Nelson had a great day running and scored two TD's on runs for 10 and 8 yards. Bob Olson and Tim Duever also added to a strong running attack. The Bruin defense also scored as Mark Osborn recovered a blocked punt in the end zone and Bob Olson added a safety. Super work was turned in by Jenks, Klinger, Kehoe, and Hunt. The Hoosier Red defense was led by Eldrup, Kesselman, Corso, Hardy and Brand while Paul Savick and Rich Gilbreth sparked the running game.

Ask Andy

Grand Coulee: monument to man

Andy sends the Encyclopaedia Britannica's 1976 Yearbook of Science and the Future to Debbie Stanton, 10, of Spokane, Wash., for her question:

HOW LONG DID IT TAKE TO BUILD THE GRAND COULEE DAM?

Many kinds of "biggest" dams exist in our modern world. There is the highest, the longest, the thickest and even the deepest dam. However, if you would like to talk about the most massive dam, then start with the Grand Coulee Dam in the State of Washington.

Before we get into the facts and figures behind the Grand Coulee Dam, it is necessary to get one basic measurement straight in our minds. Pretend, for just a moment, that you are sitting inside a box. From top to bottom the box measures three feet. From side to side and from front to back the box also spans three feet. The volume of such a box would be one cubic yard. This is the measurement used to judge the massive proportions of the Grand Coulee Dam.

The Grand Coulee Dam is the largest concrete dam in the United States. Altogether, it contains some 10,585,000 cubic yards of cement. If this amount of concrete were placed on a city block it could build a structure two and a half times as tall as the Empire State Building in New York. Or, if you wanted to build a road, there would be enough concrete for a two-lane highway from Spokane, Wash., to New York City.

The Grand Coulee Dam itself was begun in December, 1935. And at that time no one had the faintest idea that when it was completed it would stand as the largest man-made structure in the history of the world. Most of the work was completed in 1940, but it was not until 1942 that the dam actually was finished — a total of less than eight years to produce a structure that would represent one of man's greatest earthly achievements.

Andy sends a Student Globe to Jeffrey Joaquin, of West Warwick, R.I., for his question:

WHY DO THEY PRINT RESCUE BACKWARDS ON A RESCUE SQUAD TRUCK?

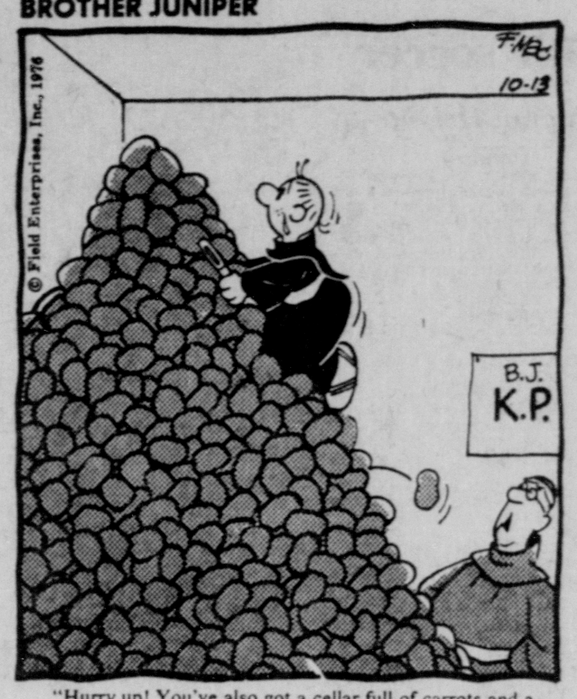

Numerous types of vehicles dash forth each day to perform all kinds of rescue operations. Police cars, fire trucks and rescue squads do their best to make sure community needs are met. Sometimes the trip to an emergency is smooth-sailing, with no need for bright lights or loud noises. Often, however, such is not the case.

Emergency vehicles usually have bright lights to let people know they should yield the right-of-way. Loud sirens also help to tell drivers that an emergency is nearby.

However, just in case the flashing lights or sirens are unnoticed, a glance in the rear-view mirror will tell the story. Everyone knows that a mirror shows things in reverse — and a backwards "Rescue" on the front of a truck means "emergency" when viewed through the all-important mirror in your car.

The evening stars are Venus and Mars.

Those born on this date are under the sign of Libra.

Spanish King Ferdinand VII was born Oct. 13, 1784. Actor Cornel Wilde was born on this date in 1918.

On this day in history:

• In 1775, the Continental Congress ordered construction of a naval fleet, thus originating the U.S. Navy.

• In 1937, Germany promised Britain and France it would not violate the neutrality of Belgium a promise later broken.

• In 1943, Italy declared war on Germany, her Axis partner earlier in World War II.

• In 1972, the worst civil air disaster in history at that time, more than 170 persons were killed when a Russian airliner crashed near the Moscow airport.

Every day is Ladies Day in the HERALD. Keep up with society and club doings in "Suburban Living", daily woman's coverage especially designed for the family.

Untie knotty bid problem

Win at bridge

by Oswald and Jim Jacoby

Today's hand reached us from an Oregon reader. It seems that he played five diamonds and went down one. This was after the opponents led a heart to the ace, a heart back to the king and a ruff of the third heart.

North felt that with only eight high-card points, South should have responded one notrump, not two diamonds. But after he had responded two diamonds, he should have passed the three-spade bid.

Three spades would have made, since North would lose just two hearts and two spades.

The hand brings up some interesting points in bidding. Thus, we would respond two diamonds with the South hand. A seven-card suit to the ace-king is worth bidding. However, we would have tried three notrump as our second bid with that South hand. Then if North passed and he should do just that, South would wrap up that three notrump.

We would be lucky. West would start with a heart and the third heart lead would clear the suit, but unfortunately for the defense there would be no way for West to get in to score his last two hearts. With some other lead the play is more complicated, but any player worth his salt would still bring home nine tricks by careful play.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Ordinance No. 2667

AN ORDINANCE AMENDING CHAPTER 25 OF THE MUNICIPAL CODE

WHEREAS, the unrestricted use of mini-bikes, go-carts, and snowmobiles as well as the uninvited entry upon the premises of another within the corporate limits of the Village of Mount Prospect has on numerous occasions endangered the health, safety, and well-being of the citizens of the Village of Mount Prospect and jeopardized the rights of the citizens of the Village of Mount Prospect to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects; and

WHEREAS, the President and Board of Trustees of the Village of Mount Prospect recognize the need to assure the safety and property of the citizens of the Village of Mount Prospect; and

WHEREAS, the Village of Mount Prospect is a Home Rule unit within the terms of Article VII, Section 6 of the 1970 Constitution of the State of Illinois, and may exercise any power or perform any function pertaining to its government and affairs; and

WHEREAS, the President and Board of Trustees of the Village of Mount Prospect have determined that the passage of this Ordinance is in the best interests of the Village of Mount Prospect;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE PRESIDENT AND BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE VILLAGE OF MOUNT PROSPECT, COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS:

SECTION ONE: That, pursuant to the authority vested in the President and Board of Trustees of the Village of Mount Prospect under Article VII of the 1970 Constitution of the State of Illinois, Chapter 25 of the Municipal Code of Mount Prospect of 1957, as amended, be and the same is hereby further amended by adding an additional Article thereto, Article VI, prohibiting trespass; so that hereafter the said Article VI of Chapter 25 shall be and read as follows:

"ARTICLE VI. TRESPASS

SECTION 25.601. Trespasses Prohibited. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation to commit a trespass within this municipality upon either public or private property.

SECTION 25.602. Specifically, Enumerated Trespasses. Without constituting any limitation upon the provisions of Section 25.601 above, any of the following acts by any person, firm, or corporation shall be deemed included among those that constitute trespasses in violation of the provisions of said Section 25.601, and appropriate action may be taken hereunder at any time, or from time to time, to prevent or suppress any violation or violations of this Article, the aforesaid enumerated acts so included, being as follows:

A. An entry upon the premises, or any part thereof, of another, including any public property in violation of a notice posted or exhibited at the main entrance of said premises or at any point of approach or entry or in violation of any notice, warning, or protest given orally or in writing, by any owner or occupant thereof; or

B. The pursuit of a course of conduct or action incidental to the making of an entry upon the land of another in violation of a notice posted or exhibited at the main entrance to said premises or at any point of approach or entry, or in violation of any notice, warning, or protest given orally or in writing by any owner or occupant thereof; or

C. A failure or refusal to depart from the premises of another in case of being requested, either orally or in writing, to leave by any owner or occupant thereof; or

D. The operation of a mini-bike, go-cart, or snowmobile in the following places:

1. On private property of another, whether or not open to the public, without the express consent of the owner or lessee, or other person in control;

2. On public school grounds, park property, playgrounds, sidewalks, recreational areas, streets, public rights-of-way, and/or other public property without the express provision or consent by the proper public authority; and

3. On or across railroad right-of-way.

E. An entry into or upon any vehicle, aircraft, or watercraft made without the consent of the person having the right to the possession or control thereof, or a failure or refusal to leave any such vehicle, aircraft, or watercraft after being requested to leave by the person having such right.

F. Any entry upon the premises, or any part thereof, of another, including any public property, during which entry any such property is defaced, broken, injured, or destroyed without the consent of the owner thereof.

SECTION 25.603. Village of Mount Prospect Policy on Soliciting. It is hereby declared to be the policy of the governing body of the Village of Mount Prospect that the occupant or occupants of the buildings in this Village shall make the determination of whether solicitors shall be, or shall not be, invited to their respective buildings. If no determination is made as is provided in Section 25.607 hereof, registration is not required.

SECTION 25.604. Registration of Solicitors. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation to engage in the business of soliciting or canvassing upon premises, within the corporate limits of the Village of Mount Prospect wherein an owner or occupant has posted a small sign at the principal entrance inviting therein only solicitors who have registered with the Police Department without such solicitor first registering with the Police Department in the manner provided in this Article.

SECTION 25.605. Registration Procedure - Solicitors and Canvassers.

A. All applicants for registration to solicit or canvass upon premises within the Village, wherein an owner or occupant has posted a small sign at the principal entrance inviting therein only those solicitors who have registered with the Police Department, shall execute an applicant blank at the Office of the Chief of Police, which applicant shall truthfully state the information requested on the application, to-wit:

1. Name and address of present place of residence and length of residence at such address; also business address if other than residence address; also Social Security number.

2. Address of place of residence during the past three (3) years if other than present address;

3. Age of applicant and marital status; and if married the name of spouse;

4. Physical description of the applicant;

5. Name and address of the person, firm, or corporation or association by whom the applicant is employed or represents; and the length of time of such employment or representation;

6. Name and address of employer during the past three (3) years if other than the present employer;

7. Description sufficient for identification of the subject matter of the soliciting which the applicant will engage in;

8. Period of time for which the Certificate is applied for;

9. The date, or approximate date, of the latest previous application for Certificate under this Ordinance, if any;

10. If a Certificate of Registration issued to the applicant under this Ordinance has ever been revoked;

11. If the applicant has ever been convicted of a violation of any of the provisions of this Ordinance, or the ordinance of any other Illinois municipality regulating soliciting;

12. If the applicant has ever been convicted of the commission of a felony under the laws of the State of Illinois or any other state or federal law of the United States; and

13. Such additional information as the Chief of Police may deem necessary to process the application.

B. All statements made by the applicant upon the application or in connection therewith shall be under oath.

C. The Chief of Police shall require every applicant to submit to fingerprinting by the Police Department of this Village in connection with the application for Certificate of Registration.

D. The Chief of Police shall cause to be kept in his office an accurate record of every application received and acted upon together with all other information and data pertaining thereto on all Certificates of Registration issued under the provisions of this Article, and of the denial of applications. Applications for Certificates shall be numbered in consecutive order as filed, and every Certificate issued, and any renewal thereof, shall be identified with the duplicate number of the application upon which it was issued.

E. No Certificate of Registration shall be issued to any person who has been convicted of the commission of a felony under the laws of the State of Illinois or any other state or federal law of the United States, within five (5) years of the date of the application; nor to any person who has been convicted of a violation of any of the provisions of this Article, nor to any person whose Certificate of Registration issued hereunder has previously been revoked as herein provided.

SECTION 25.606. Issuance and Revocation of Solicitor's Certificate of Registration.

A. The Chief of Police, after consideration of the application for registered solicitor and all information obtained relative thereto, shall deny the application if the applicant does not possess the qualifications for such Certificate as herein required, and that the issuance of a Certificate of Registration to the applicant would not be in accord with the intent and purpose of this Article.

1. Endorsement shall be made by the Chief of Police upon the application of the denial of the application.

2. When the applicant is found to be fully qualified, the Certificate of Registration shall be issued forthwith.

3. The Certificate of Registration shall state the expiration date thereof.

B. Any Certificate of Registration issued hereunder shall be revoked by the Chief of Police if the holder of the Certificate is convicted of a violation of any of the provisions of this Article, or has made a false material statement in the application, or otherwise becomes disqualified for the issuance of a Certificate of Registration under the terms of this Article. Immediately upon such revocation written notice thereof shall be given by the Chief of Police to the holder of the Certificate in person or by certified U.S. mail addressed to his or her residence address set forth in the application.

C. Immediately upon the giving of such notice, the Certificate of Registration shall become null and void.

SECTION 25.607. Notice Regulating Soliciting. Every owner or occupant desiring to secure the protection intended to be provided by the regulations pertaining to soliciting contained in this Article, shall give notice of the determination by the owner or an occupant of giving invitation to solicitors, or the refusal of invitation to solicitors, to any building, shall be given in the following means:

A. A weatherproof card, no longer than three inches by four inches in size, shall be exhibited upon or near the main entrance door to the building, indicating the determination by the owner or an occupant, containing the applicable words, as follows:

"ONLY SOLICITORS REGISTERED WITH THE MOUNT PROSPECT POLICE DEPARTMENT INVITED" or
"NO SOLICITORS INVITED"

B. The letters shall be at least one-third inch in height. For the purpose of uniformity the cards shall be provided by the Finance Department to persons requesting, at the cost thereof.

C. Such card so exhibited shall constitute sufficient notice to any solicitor of the determination by the occupant of the building of the information contained thereon.

SECTION 25.608. Duty of Solicitors.

A. It shall be the duty of every solicitor upon going onto any premises in the Village of Mount Prospect upon which a building as herein defined is located to first examine the Notice provided for in Section 25.607 of this Article, if any is attached, and be governed by the statement contained on the Notice.

1. If the Notice states "ONLY SOLICITORS REGISTERED WITH THE MOUNT PROSPECT POLICE DEPARTMENT INVITED," then the solicitor not possessing a valid Certificate of Registration as herein provided shall immediately and peacefully depart from the premises.

2. If the Notice states "NO SOLICITORS INVITED," then the solicitor, whether registered or not, shall immediately and peacefully leave the premises.

B. Any solicitor who has gained entrance to any building, whether invited or not, shall immediately and peacefully depart from the premises when requested to do so by the occupant.

SECTION 25.609. Uninvited Soliciting Prohibited. It is hereby declared to be unlawful and shall constitute a nuisance for any person to go upon any premises and ring the door bell upon or near any door, or create any sound in any manner calculated to attract the attention of the occupant of such building, for the purpose of securing an audience with the occupant thereof and engage in soliciting as herein defined, in defiance of the Notice exhibited at the building or oral notice given in accordance with the provisions of Section 25.608 of this Article.

SECTION 25.610. Limitations on Soliciting. It is hereby declared to be unlawful and shall constitute a nuisance for any person whether registered under this Article or not, to go upon any premises and ring the door bell upon or near any door of a building located thereon, or rap or knock upon any door, or create any sound in any other manner calculated to attract the attention of the occupant of such building, for the purpose of securing an audience with the occupant thereof and engage in soliciting as herein defined, prior to 9:00 o'clock A.M. or after sunset of any weekday; or at any time on a Sunday or on a State or National Holiday.

SECTION 25.611. Limitation on Operation of Mini-Bikes, Go-valid Certificate of Registration as hereinabove provided, and which Certificate is in the possession of the solicitor on his or her person while engaging in soliciting.

17. Residence or Dwelling Unit. Every separate living unit occupied for residential purposes by one or more persons, contained within any type of building or structure.

18. Snowmobile. Any self-propelled vehicle designed for travel on ice or snow steered by skis or rutters, the use of which is prohibited upon public streets and highways by laws of the State of Illinois.

19. Soliciting.

a. Seeking to obtain orders for the purchase of goods, wares, merchandise, foodstuffs and/or services, of any kind character, or description whatsoever, for any kind of consideration whatever; or

b. Seeking to obtain prospective customers for application or purchase of insurance of any type, kind, or character; or

c. Seeking to obtain subscriptions to books, magazines, periodicals, newspapers, and every other type or kind of publication; or

d. Seeking to obtain gifts or contributions of money, clothing, or any other valuable thing for the support or benefit of any charitable or non-profit association, organization, corporation, or project.

20. Solicitor. Any individual, whether a resident of the Village of Mount Prospect or not, traveling either by foot, wagon, automobile, motor truck, or any other type of conveyance, from place to place, from house to house, or from street to street, taking or attempting to take orders for sale of goods, wares, and merchandise, personal property of any nature whatsoever for future delivery, or for services to be furnished or performed in the future, whether or not such individual has, carries, or exposes for sale a sample of the subject of such sale or whether he is collecting advance payment on such sales or not, provided that such definition shall include any person, who for himself, or for another person, firm, or corporation, hires, leases, uses, or occupies any building, structure, tent, railroad box car, boat, hotel room, lodging house, apartment, shop, or any other place within the Village for the sole purpose of exhibiting samples and taking orders for future delivery.

21. Trespass. Any of the following acts by any person, firm, or corporation shall be deemed included among those that constitute trespass in violation of the provisions of Section 25.601, and appropriate action may be taken thereunder at any time, or from time to time, to prevent or suppress any violation or violations of this Article, the aforesaid enumerated acts so included, being as follows:

a. An entry upon the premises, or any part thereof, of another, including any public property in violation of a notice posted or exhibited at the main entrance to said premises or at any point of approach or entry in violation of any notice, warning, or protest given orally or in writing, by any owner or occupant thereof; or

b. The pursuit of a course of conduct or action incidental to the making of an entry upon the land of another in violation of a notice posted or exhibited at the main entrance to said premises or at any point of approach or entry, or in violation of any notice, warning, or protest given orally or in writing by any owner or occupant thereof; or

c. A failure or refusal to depart from the premises of another in case of being requested, either orally or in writing, to leave by any owner or occupant thereof; or

d. An entry into or upon any vehicle, aircraft, or watercraft made without the consent of the person having the right to the possession or control thereof, or a failure or refusal to leave any such vehicle, aircraft, or watercraft after being requested to leave by the person having such right.

22. Unemancipated Minor. A minor who is dependent upon his parent, or parents, or legal guardian, and who is subject to parental power.

23. Vehicle. Every device in, upon, or by which any person or property is or may be transported or drawn upon a highway except devices moved by human power or used exclusively upon stationary rails or tracks.

24. Village. The Village of Mount Prospect, Cook County, Illinois."

Pauley's 'Today' debut passable albeit passive

by JOAN HANAUER

NEW YORK (UPI) — Reviewing Jane Pauley's debut as the new girl on the "Today" show is like trying to review a decorative piece of stage property — very pretty, stylishly contemporary, but what else to say?

That's not meant to knock Miss Pauley — she may well have it, but NBC gave her little chance to flaunt it from 7 to 9 a.m. Monday.

Certainly she has poise and projects self-confidence, both vital on an early morning show. The last thing an audience wants to contend with at 7 a.m. is somebody else's nervous indisposition.

MISS PAULEY and "Today" host Tom Brokaw had a brief news conference after the show, during which Miss Pauley remarked at one point that nobody was likely to confuse her with Barbara Walters.

Aside from the fact that she is blond and a lot younger, the main difference is that Miss Walters was in charge of the show, while Miss Pauley for now is distinctly third banana, after Brokaw and Gene Shalit.

In a brief statement at the start of "Today" Miss Pauley noted criticism that at 25 she was too young, and added, "I'm inclined to think it makes no difference."

But it made a big difference when she and Shalit interviewed author James T. Farrell.

While she had handled herself competently if unobtrusively during an interview she and Brokaw did with Democratic vice presidential candidate Sen. Walter Mondale, Miss Pauley hadn't had time to do her homework for the Farrell interview. Unfortunately, it showed.

Aside from a gaffe, in which she asked the author how he would feel about Hollywood making a movie of "Studs Lonigan," which Hollywood did a long time ago, there was little meeting ground. That's not surprising. Miss Pauley is 25 and Farrell 73. Chicago? He left in 1931; she lived there only for the past year and a half and would never recognize Farrell's brash and vibrant young city.

Surely NBC could have found an interview subject that would have shown off its new girl to better advantage.

LEGAL NOTICE

Cook County Preamble

Cook County DELINQUENT TAX LIST

OFFICE OF COUNTY TREASURER OF COOK COUNTY AND EX-OFFICIO COUNTY COLLECTOR OF COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS

Advertisement and Notice of Collector of Cook County of Application for Judgment against Delinquent Lands and Lots for General Taxes for the year 1975, for delinquent back tax items, for Order of Sales Thereof, and Notice of Sale Thereof, and application for judgment fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest, as provided by law.

October 13, 1976

NOTICE IS hereby given that the said Collector of Cook County will apply to the County Division of Circuit Court of Cook County on the 1st day of November, A.D. 1976, for judgment against lands and lots hereinafter described as being delinquent upon which taxes remain due and unpaid, or personal property taxes charged thereon, as noted in this advertisement, remain due and unpaid, for said taxes, interest and costs and for an order to sell said lands and lots for the satisfaction thereof according to law (excepting from said judgment and order of sales the cases which are included in this advertisement for sale only under former unexecuted judgments and orders for sale as may be noted in this advertisement.)

Notice is also given that an application will be made for judgment fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest.

Notice is further herein and hereby given that on the second Monday next succeeding the 1st day of Nov. A.D 1976, to wit, the 15th day of Nov., A.D. 1976, at the hour of 8 o'clock A.M. all said lands and lots hereinafter described for sale of which an order shall be made, or has been made and not executed as noted, will be exposed to public sale at the County Building of Cook County where the seat of County government is located in said County, for the amount of taxes, interest and costs due thereon respectively.

The following is a list of delinquent lands and lots upon which the taxes remain due and unpaid, the name of the owners, where known, the total amount due thereon (excluding delinquent special assessments separately advertised) and the year or years for which the same is due.

(The total amount due in this application on each tract or parcel of land or lots is the sum of the amounts appearing due in this advertisement.)

EXPLANATORY NOTE—In this list in all places where no other notation is made the figures in the column headed "$" (meaning dollars) and the "cts" (meaning cents) represent the taxes due and unpaid for the year A.D. 1975 Where the letter "F" is placed to the left of the figures in this column it is intended for an abbreviation of the word "forfeiture," and denotes that the amounts due and unpaid on said lands and lots have been previously forfeited to the State. When back taxes are extended they are indicated by the last segment of the property index number identified by the unit. This unit will be identified by a number 7000 or greater.

Payment of taxes made after printer's copies are sent to publishers for listing, and appearing as delinquent in this advertisement, will be satisfied in judgment records before sale.

In lieu of legal description used heretofore each parcel of land or lot is designated by a permanent real estate index number.

In the permanent real estate index number system, appearing in the column headed "A," the subarea by the number in the column headed "SA," the block by the number appearing in the column headed "Blk," and the particular parcel by the number in the column headed "Pcl."

Comparison of the permanent real estate index number with the legal description of any parcel may be made by referring to the cross indices maintained in County offices.

Published by order of County Collector of Cook County, Illinois.

The following is a list of Delinquent properties, on which certificate of errors or Homestead Exemptions have been granted. However, the law provides they must be published, but not offered for sale.

LEGAL NOTICE

Cook County Preamble

Cook County
DELINQUENT

OFFICE OF COUNTY TREASURER OF COOK COUNTY AND EX-OFFICIO COUNTY COLLECTOR OF COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS

Advertisement and Notice of Collector of Cook County of Application for Judgment against Delinquent Lands and Lots for General Taxes for the year 1975, for delinquent back tax items, for Order of Sales Thereof, and Notice of Sale Thereof, and application for judgment fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest, as provided by law.

October 13, 1976

NOTICE IS hereby given that the said Collector of Cook County will apply to the County Division of Circuit Court of Cook County on the 1st day of November, A.D. 1976, for judgment against lands and lots hereinafter described as being delinquent upon which taxes remain due and unpaid, or personal property taxes charged thereon, as noted in this advertisement, remain due and unpaid, for said taxes, interest and costs and for an order to sell said lands and lots for the satisfaction thereof according to law (excepting from said judgment and order of sales the cases which are included in this advertisement for sale only under former unexecuted judgments and orders for sale as may be noted in this advertisement.)

Notice is also given that an application will be made for judgment fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest.

Notice is further herein and hereby given that on the second Monday next succeeding the 1st day of Nov. A.D. 1976, to wit, the 15th day of Nov., A.D. 1976, at the hour of 8 o'clock A.M. all said lands and lots hereinafter described for sale of which an order shall be made, or has been made and not executed as noted, will be exposed to public sale at the County Building of Cook County where the seat of County government is located in said County, for the amount of taxes, interest and costs due thereon respectively.

The following is a list of delinquent lands and lots upon which the taxes remain due and unpaid, the name of the owners, where known, the total amount due thereon (excluding delinquent special assessments separately advertised) and the year or years for which the same is due.

(The total amount due in this application on each tract or parcel of land or lots is the sum of the amounts appearing due in this advertisement.)

EXPLANATORY NOTE - In this list in all places where no other notation is made the figures in the column headed "$" (meaning dollars) and the "cts" (meaning cents) represent the taxes due and unpaid for the year A.D. 1975 Where the letter "F" is placed to the left of the figures in this column it is intended for an abbreviation of the word "forfeiture," and denotes that the amounts due and unpaid on said lands and lots have been previously forfeited to the State. When back taxes are extended they are indicated by the last segment of the property index number identified by the unit. This unit will be identified by a number 7000 or greater.

Payment of taxes made after printer's copies are sent to publishers for listing, and appearing as delinquent in this advertisement, will be satisfied in judgment records before sale.

In lieu of legal description used heretofore each parcel of land or lot is designated by a permanent real estate index number.

In the permanent real estate index number system, appearing in the column headed "A," the subarea by the number in the column headed "SA," the block by the number appearing in the column headed "Blk," and the particular parcel by the number in the column headed "Pcl."

Comparison of the permanent real estate index number with the legal description of any parcel may be made by referring to the cross indices maintained in County offices.

Published by order of County Collector of Cook County, Illinois.

The following is a list of Delinquent properties, on which certificate of errors or Homestead Exemptions have been granted. However, the law provides they must be published, but not offered for sale.

Published by order of the County Collector of Cook County, Illinois

IMPORTANT NOTICE

If your property is one of those listed in this sale of special assessments which have become delinquent it is imperative that you take action so you will not lose your property. Under law, the purchaser of the delinquent special assessments can go to court after two years and obtain title to these properties if they are not redeemed. Properties subject to both delinquent real estate tax and delinquent special assessment will be offered for sale simultaneously. If your property is listed please contact us before the sale on November 15 so that we can assist you. Call Ruth Carey at 443-6234.

COOK COUNTY DELINQUENT SPECIAL ASSESSMENT LIST FOR THE YEAR 1976

NOTICE OF APPLICATION OF COUNTY COLLECTOR OF COOK COUNTY FOR JUDGMENT AND FOR AN ORDER OF SALE ON ACCOUNT OF DELINQUENT SPECIAL ASSESSMENT

Advertisement and Notice of County Collector of Cook County of application for judgment and order of sale of delinquent lands and lots on accounts of unpaid special assessments or installments thereof, as provided by law.

COUNTY OF COOK,
STATE OF ILLINOIS October 13, 1976 A.D.

Notice is hereby given that the County Collector of Cook County, Illinois, will apply to the County Division of the Circuit Court of Cook County, Illinois, on Monday, November 1, 1976 A.D., for judgment against all lands and lots described as being delinquent upon which special assessments remain due and unpaid for said special assessments, or unpaid installments thereof, with interest and costs, as provided by law, and for an order for sale of said lands and lots for satisfaction thereof, (excepting from said judgment and order of sale all lands and lots, if any, as noted in this advertisement and publication, ordered sold by unexecuted judgments and orders of sale, previously entered for sale delinquent special assessments, interests and costs, as provided by law, such lands and lots being included in this advertisement for sale only under such previous judgments and orders of sale). Notice is further given that on the second Monday next succeeding the date of said application, namely on Monday, November 15, 1976 A.D., at the hour of eight o'clock A.M., all of said lands and lots hereafter described, for sale of which an order shall be made or has heretofore been made but not executed, will be exposed to public sale at the County Building of Cook County, where the Seat of the County government is located in said County, for the amount of the special assessments or installments theref, interest and costs due theron, respectively. The following is a list of delinquent lands and lots in the County of Cook and State of Illinois, upon which remain due and unpaid special assessments or installments thereof, levied and assessed by the authority of the municipalities as indicated therein, special assessments levied by the authority of each municipality being set forth under the name of such municipality.

COOK COUNTY COLLECTOR
October 13, 1976

EXPLANATORY NOTE—In this list in all places where no other notation is made the figures in the column headed "$" (meaning dollars) and "cts" (meaning cents) represent the assessment or installment thereof due and unpaid. "Desc" means description of said lands and lots, by Permanent Real Estate Index Number, as authorized by statute.
